Believe Pope John Will Call Consistory To Select Cardinals

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Reports are increasing in Vatican circles that Pope John XXIII will call a consistory, perhaps by Christmas, to bolster the thinned and aging ranks of the College of Cardinals.

The Sacred College, with 70 members when at full strength, now has 17 vacancies. The average age of the cardinals left to bear the administrative burdens of the Roman Catholic Church is 73.

Two deaths in the past six months have cut the United States cardinals down to two. Britain has neither has Austria, Mexico with 23 million Catholics and the Philippines with 17 million never have had a Prince of the Church.

Most of the speculation here has been that the new Pope, crowned Nov. 4, will name nine or 10 Italians and seven or eight non-Italians for elevation to the purple.

Among these last might be the church's first Negro cardinal to represent what the church has called its "blossoming black flower" of increasing Catholicism in Africa.

He might be gray-haired Mgr. Joseph Kiwamuka, 60, archbishop of Maska, Uganda, who was consecrated bishop by the late Pope Pius XII in St. Peter's Basilica in 1939.

The ranks of United States cardinals were reduced by the deaths of Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Archbishop of Chicago, May 27, and Edward Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit, Oct. 25, only a few hours before the opening of the conclave which chose Angelo Giuseppe Cardinal Roncalli as the new Pope.

There is no way to know how many new United States cardinals the Pope might nominate, much less who they might be. But speculation both in clerical and lay circles here has centered upon the names of the Most Rev. Richard James Cushing, 63, Archbishop of Boston, and the Most Rev. Albert Gregory Meyer, 55, Archbishop of Chicago.

Others mentioned have been the Most Rev. John Joseph Mitty, Archbishop of San Francisco; the Most Rev. John P. O'Hara, Archbishop of Philadelphia; and the Most Rev. Joseph Elmer Ritter, Archbishop of St. Louis.

Most Rev. John Joseph Mitty, Archbishop of San Francisco, the Most Rev. John P. O'Hara, Archbishop of Philadelphia, and the Most Rev. Joseph Elmer Ritter, Archbishop of St. Louis.

The girl also lives in Wheaton, Ill. DuPage County 20 miles west of Chicago. State's Atty. William Guild said a petition is pending to place her in the custody of the County Court. It stems, he said, from an investigation of a complaint she made against a group of boys she said molested her.

The girl was riding with Farrar in his car when he was picked up by police of the Cook County sheriff's force. Capt. Nathan Klein of the sheriff's police said the girl received anonymous telephone calls since August, and arranged to meet the caller Friday in Oak Park, another Chicago suburb.

Farrar picked up the girl there and police trailed the car to River Forest and made the arrest.

The mayor said he recognized the girl as she stood on a street corner and he offered her a ride home. He denied making any telephone calls to her.

The mayor's wife, Phyllis, said she would stand by him. She called the charge "a lot of foolishness."

She is his second wife. His first marriage ended in divorce.

The four-man commission which governs Wheaton indicated it will delay any action until the mayor has his day in court.

Klein said the girl's father, an unemployed salesman, made tape recordings of some of the anonymous calls and believed he knew the identity of the caller.

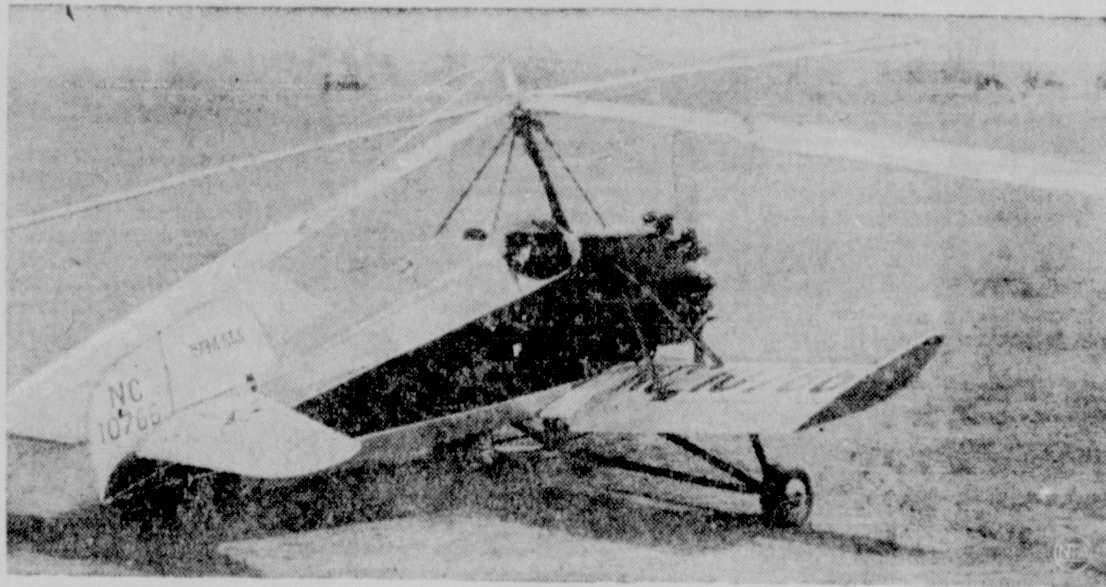

The captain said the father went to the Cook County sheriff's police because he figured DuPage County officials might be reluctant to act if a prominent citizen of their county was involved.

COMEBACK FOR THE AUTOGIRO—The autogiro, a novel aircraft of the 30's combining the virtues of the airplane and the helicopter, is being put back into production because its designer believes it was ahead of its time. The Kellett Aircraft Corporation of Willow Grove, Pa., says the new autogiro will debut this winter with deliveries expected next spring. The machine can fly as slow as 20 m.p.h. and cruise up to 120 m.p.h. Kellett's original autogiro is shown above in 1931.

Rescue Six Of Eight Men Who Dropped From Crippled Plane

HUNTSVILLE, Utah (AP) —

Five more of the eight men who parachuted from a crippled C119 cargo plane were found Saturday night as darkness and blizzards dimmed hope for them.

The plane's commander, Capt. Harry O. Blount, was found shortly after midnight Friday, but two other men were still missing in the snow-covered mountains of north-eastern Utah.

Blount, four other crewmen and three passengers bailed out of the plane Friday when one of the plane's two engines failed en route to Hill Air Force Base at Ogden, Utah, 15 miles east of here.

The plane flew another 150 miles on automatic pilot and crashed in eastern Idaho.

One of the five men found Saturday night was reported to be injured, but his identity and the extent of his injuries were not immediately determined.

The two men still missing were identified as:

1. Lt. Donald E. Born, pilot, Clearfield, Utah. His home town is Anderson, N.Y.

2. Capt. Donald Liggett, navigator, Clearfield, whose home town is Indianapolis, Ind.

Officials identified the rescued men as:

3. Sgt. Walter P. Bigelow, a reservist from Ogden.

4. S. Sgt. Ivan Probasco, a reservist from Kearns, Utah.

5. M. Sgt. Joseph W. Reagan, Neil's AFB, Las Vegas, Nev.

Tentatively identified were:

6. Sgt. L. C. R. Feltner, being transferred from Ft. Belvoir, Va., to Ft. Lewis, Wash.

7. Cpl. Sestes Copeland, Ft. Bragg, N.C., hometown Entail, Wash.

Searchers slogged on through heavy snow in the search for the two missing airmen.

Blount was buddled under a tree and wrapped in his parachute for protection when he was found.

The wiry 33-year-old Great Falls, Mont., man stayed anxiously by searchers until exhaustion forced him to go to Hill AFB to rest.

Blount ordered the men to abandon the aircraft when he realized it would never cross high mountains on one engine.

The C119 was on the last leg of a flight from Charleston, S.C., via Brooks AFB, Tex., when the trouble occurred.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another postponement of an Atlas ICBM test firing Saturday underscored this fact: transoceanic rockets aren't ready yet to supplant intermediate range ballistic missiles like those scheduled to go to European bases.

At Cape Canaveral, Fla., an Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile test firing was postponed for the second time in three days because of technical difficulties.

This came after Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy told a news conference here Thursday that "the further you go down the road toward an operational capability of the ICBM, the less interesting it is for us to deploy additional ones of the IRBM's, and we are closer to the time of operation capability of the Atlas."

McElroy's statement was interpreted generally to mean that the time is coming when the United States will rely on its U. S.-based 5,000-mile range ICBM missiles and eventually drop the present program of installing 1,500-mile range ICBM's around the European periphery of the Soviet Union.

It also was interpreted by some as meaning that a broadscale, wholesale revision of basic U. S. military strategy is in the offing. The State Department was moved to issue an official statement saying it found nothing in McElroy's remarks which indicated a departure from over-all strategy.

McElroy, some of his Pentagon aides insist, was talking in terms of a year or several years when he said that "the further you go down the road toward an operational ICBM" the less interesting becomes overseas use of the shorter range missiles. But McElroy also said that "we are coming closer" to the time when ICBM's will be ready for combat use.

It is true that the Air Force is preparing to use Atlas missiles. The first squadron composing a launching crew is expected to become operational next year at Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

A second squadron is being assigned to the other Atlas launching site at Warren AFB, Wyo.

But the Air Force weapons designers are still working at perfection of the missiles which these two squadrons will use.

To date, no Atlas missile has been pushed in test firings to the full designed range of 5,500 miles. Approximately half of the Atlas flights tests so far have been described as completely successful. Some of the others have been partially successful, some failures.

TRUCKER SPREADS 16 TONS OF CHEESE WITH JACK-KNIFE

CHICAGO (AP) — Roy Bensley, a Cleveland, Ohio, truck driver, spread an awful lot of cheese with a jack-knife today—in a manner of speaking.

Bensley, 55, told suburban Skokie police that a careless motorist cut in front of the truck-trailer in which he was carrying 16 tons of bulk cheese from Marshfield, Wis., to a Chicago warehouse.

Bensley, compelled to brake and turn to avoid ramming the offender, lost control. His trailer whipped past his tractor-truck in what truckers call a jack-knife. It upset, and the load of cheese flooded the highway.

TWO DEER HUNTERS KILLED. THREE OTHERS DIE

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Two hunters were killed by bullets and three died of heart attacks Saturday before Wisconsin's deer hunting season was more than a few hours old.

First reported killed was Joseph Vanden Boegart, 22, of Sturgeon Bay. He was shot and killed about 6:25 a.m. The season opened at 6:19 a.m.

Suspect Russia Maneuvering For Ministers' Meeting

GENEVA (AP) — Western delegates sought Saturday night to determine whether the Russians are trying to compel the West to transform two international conferences in Geneva into a big-power foreign ministers' meeting.

The Russians privately denied such an intention. It was clear also that the subject has not been raised inside the conference rooms.

Because the talks on nuclear test suspension and surprise attack problems are both deadlocked, some observers believe that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd might need to turn up before the negotiations can get rolling.

As an indication of the lack of progress so far, Radio Moscow Saturday night broadcast a five-point Soviet plan for nuclear test suspensions identical to the document introduced by Soviet Delegate Semyon Tsarapkin on the opening day of the three-power nuclear talks Oct. 31.

The broadcast ignored an American plan—put in two days ago—which called on the Big Three powers to undertake jointly to suspend tests and establish an international control system. In the Western view, the Russians have been ducking on the whole control issue.

The United States Saturday rejected the five-point suspension plan put forward by the Soviets. A State Department statement issued in Washington declared the Russians were asking the United States "to buy a pig in a poke."

The Western delegations have shown no desire to raise the negotiations to the foreign minister level. One high Western source said it was beginning to look as though the Russians might be digging in their heels mainly to force such a meeting.

However, a Soviet source said it would be a mistake to assume that Soviet actions here were undertaken with such a goal in mind.

DEALERS CRITICIZE Compulsory Price Posting On Cars

DETROIT (AP) — Compulsory price posting on new automobiles is getting a mixed reception among auto retailers.

Some retailers say it already has eliminated evils in car merchandising, particularly the packing of prices so that fictitious discounts could be offered.

Others say the posted prices scare prospects out of the sales rooms before the dealer has a chance to disclose his willingness to sell below the posted price.

The real test of the law, some dealers say, will come when inventories reach more substantial levels. That will mean increased price competition.

The auto makers, hampered by strikes and materials shortages, have just begun to ship cars at near-normal levels. Barring further assembly line stoppages they should have the supply lines filled within the next few weeks.

Posting of suggested list prices on new cars began Oct. 1 under a federal statute. The law requires that the price of the car and all accessories appear on a sticker attached to the car as long as it remains in the retailer's possession.

The law does not bind the dealer to sell at the posted figure. He will sell below the posted price in many instances.

He could ask more than the posted price—if he could find a buyer on that basis. But it would take a shortage such as existed in the early postwar days to do business on that basis.

NEW YORK (AP) — Negotiators stopped the clock as a midnight strike deadline passed Saturday night with contract talks between four television and radio networks and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists still in session.

A union spokesman said substantial progress had been made in certain areas.

The union team had returned to joint negotiations at 11 p.m. after studying a new employer proposal for several hours.

The union said a strike would knock out 90 per cent of the live TV and radio network shows. It said all entertainers' unions—including Actors Equity, the American Guild of Variety Artists, the Screen Actors Guild, and the American Guild of Musical Artists—are supporting the strike.

However, the networks have prepared for such a strike by taping and prerecording major shows. One spokesman said the strike could last a week without the general public missing many of the favorite shows.

The AFTRA contract was to expire at midnight with the American Broadcasting Co., the Columbia Broadcasting System, the Mutual Broadcasting System, and the National Broadcasting Co. ABC, CBS, and NBC have both radio and TV outlets. Mutual has only radio.

The networks were reported to have asked George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, to intervene. Meany was said to have replied that bargaining should continue a while longer before he would step in.

AFTRA seeks wage increases and other concessions, most controversial of which is a rate schedule for union members whose performances are reproduced on the new video tape. It would include a sliding scale of payments for each time the tape is televised after the original showing.

Present wage scales have not been disclosed.

SPIRITS LAVE HIGHWAY

SANDOVAL, N.M. (AP) — A truck trailer overturned on a turn near Sandoval today and 1,100 cases of whiskey tumbled on to U. S. Highway 50. A quantity of whiskey covered the highway for a time.

Truck driver Bob Munger of Patton Junction, Mo., told police the trailer broke loose and overturned as he pulled into a State Police weighing station.

In Dueling Scene In Role Of Solomon

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Tyrone Power was stricken Saturday by a heart attack at the height of a dueling scene on a movie set and died on hour later.

The dark, handsome stage and screen star was 45. Power's death was a tragic duplicate of that of his actor father, Frederick Tyrone Power, who was stricken fatally on a Hollywood movie set in 1931.

A virtual stranger in recent years to Hollywood where he made his fame and fortune, Power was here for the filming of "Solomon and Sheba" with Italian actress Gina Lollobrigida.

In the role of Solomon, Power showed up on the set for a dueling scene with George Sanders, 52, a movie veteran. Sanders, playing the role of Solomon's older brother was to be killed in the duel.

With his success in "Lloyds of London," he was on his way to stardom. He was a romantic figure, and his name was linked with the beauties of the film capital—Sonja Henie, Janet Gaynor, Arlene Whelan, Loretta Young and Norma Shearer.

He starred in such box office attractions as "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Marie Antoinette," "Rose of Washington Square," "Jesse James," "Johnny Apollo," "The Rains Came," "Brigham Young," "The Mark of Zorro," "The Eddy Duchin Story" and "The Sun Also Rises."

Power was the top box office star of Hollywood in 1938 and 1940. When World War II came, he snuck his career and in 1942 enlisted as a private in the Marines at San Diego.

He was discharged in 1945 as a lieutenant.

Saturday night Power's body was transferred by funeral coach from the hospital to the U.S. Torreyon Air Base. A funeral service will be held there Sunday.

The widow intends to fly to Hollywood in a chartered plane with the body. The date of departure has not been fixed.

Miss Lollobrigida said Power had entered her dressing room on the set only a short time before he was taken ill and given her "his usual good-natured, jovial 'Good morning'."

"I have never met a more generous man, a finer professional companion, or a more thorough actor," she said in a statement. "His tragic death has been one of the worst shocks of my life."

Director King Vidor halted shooting. Spanish extras left the scene solemnly. The entire staff was shaken when the news came that Power was dead.

Richmond was at Power's bedside when death came. He then left to tell Power's third wife, the former Mrs. Deborah Minardos, 28, married to Power early this year, she is expecting a child in February.

Power's previous marriages to French actress Annabella — Suzanne Georgeette Charpentier—and actress Linda Christian ended in divorce.

Power was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, May 5, 1913, according to his studio and the Motion Picture Almanac. Who's Who listed the year as 1914.

He had his first stage role at 7. After he was graduated from high school in Cincinnati he began preparing for a theatrical career in the Navy.

The Navy reported the accident, but said few details had been received. What information was available here indicated that the HUP helicopter was flying from the carrier Lexington when it crashed and burned near the Machinists' headquarters depot on Okinawa.

Southerland, who saw service in many of the major World War II battles of the Pacific, had been an aviator since shortly after graduating from Annapolis in 1927.

During World War II assault against Japanese positions in the Philippines he was wounded by an enemy suicide plane attack on the carrier Lexington.

SERENADERS FROM MORGAN

In Oklahoma the natives listen to and view The Willie Wirehand Serenaders with probably not a doubt that the popular singing group hails from the wide open spaces of the west. The Serenaders, however, come from good old Morgan county, Illinois, stock rather than out of the sage brush country.

Consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Harold (Stubby) Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Driver, the quartet appears over a two-station television network at Oklahoma City and Enid, under sponsorship of 21 rural electric cooperatives. Driver and Mrs. Daniel are brother and sister.

The Serenaders are in their twentieth year of presenting variety programs in radio and television. They were reared in the Jacksonville and Litterberry communities, receiving their early musical training in the studio of Mrs. D. O. Floeth. Their work has taken them to many cities and they have appeared on coast-to-coast networks numerous times.

THIS WEEK IN BUSINESS

By WALTER BREDE JR.
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Boom forces in the nation's economy gained fresh impetus this week.

Stock market averages roared to new record highs on a burst of buoyant buying; steel production touched its highest level in more than a year. Latest figures on home building showed housing starts proceeding at their fastest pace since 1955.

Industrial production in October continued its upward climb. The forward momentum of the economy prompted some observers to renew their warnings of inflation. Declared the National Assn. of Credit Management: "The business revival is rapidly gathering a full head of steam but the prospects of control of inflation for the next couple of years are not bright... this continues to be the number one enemy of national stability."

At a forum sponsored by the National Industrial Conference Board, top business executives predicted a further speedup in the nation's economic tempo. Ralph Lazarus, president of Federal Department Stores Inc., said American shoppers will make Christmas 1958 the biggest yet, with Yule business in department stores topping 1957 by at least two per cent. Store sales in the first six months of 1959 should exceed the year-ago rate by 4 to 5 per cent, said Lazarus, adding: "Consumers are in a better position to buy than they have been in some time."

Thomas F. Patton, president of Republic Steel Corp., told the forum that 1959 steel production should rise 20 to 30 per cent above this year's depressed levels to between 102 million and 110 million pig iron tons. Behind the prospective increase: stepped up production of automobiles — from 4½ million this year to 5½ million in 1959 — a rising rate of construction activity, and stronger demand for such steel-consuming items as industrial machinery and freight cars.

The pattern of the nation's defense spending may get a new look next year. Defense Secretary Neil McElroy announced that a major overhaul of military planning is in the works. There will be more emphasis on long-range, intercontinental rocket weapons and less on intermediate-range missiles, more money allocated to the Navy and Air Force and less to the infantry. Stock sales in the latest week totaled 20,790,426 shares compared with 15,920,235 shares in the previous week and 11,671,330 in the corresponding week last year.

Bond sales had a par value of $39,806,000 for the week, up from $29,466,000 the previous four-day week interrupted by election day. A year ago the total was $25,921,000.

Briefly over the business scene: Strikes are raising hob with the auto industry again. Production at Chrysler Corp. assembly plants has been halted by a walkout of office employees. A strike at Budd Co., which supplies American Motors Corp. with auto body parts, has hamstrung production of Ramblers. George Romney, head of American Motors, said the company may pay a dividend to its stockholders for the first time in more than four years.

price cuts made news this week: Leading retailers trimmed wholesale prices of vacuum-packed coffee; Singer Sewing Machine Co. cut retail price of two portable sewing machines. John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers Union, is hinting that his coal miners may walk out again next year. They haven't been on strike since 1950. The U.S. Navy gave four shipbuilding concerns contracts totaling $193 million dollars for seven guided-missile ships. The U.S. Department of Agriculture says farmers' profits, now at a five-year high, may decline 5 to 10 per cent next year. Warm weather in many parts of the country is lifting sales of men's coats and suits. Sy Berkowitz, manager of industrial sales for Schenley Distillers Co., says U.S. business will spend close to 300 million dollars this year on Christmas liquor gifts. Liquor, he asserts, "is the gift that no one ever exchanges."

ASBURY W.S.C.S MEETING TO BE HELD THURSDAY

The Asbury W.S.C.S. will meet Thursday, Nov. 20, at the home of Mrs. Paul Barrows, Mrs. W. E. Barrows and Mrs. Gene Cully are assistant hostesses. There will be a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Carol Hembrough. The meeting is to be at 1:30 p.m. and the members are reminded of the change in the regularly scheduled time.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

LONGDEN RIDES AGAIN—Johnny Longden, alltime riding champion with more than 5,000 winners, is back in the saddle again. Longden is shown on a saddle horse at the Santa Anita track as he watches training activities. Longden broke his right leg two months ago in a turf accident. He said he had no thoughts of giving up riding and that he hopes to be riding early in the Santa Anita meeting.

Note to New Cooks: the word "drrippins" in a recipe refers to the fat and solid particles left in the pan after cooking meat or poultry.

AND HOW THEY GREW — For the second time since World War II, the Soviet Union has published almost complete information on its exports, showing that a new record was set in 1957 in terms of raw materials. An indication of Russian industrial growth is seen in the fact that the 1957 exports of refined oil products doubled the 1954 figure. Tin exports exploded from 2,500 tons in 1956 to 18,300 tons in 1957, only 7,000 tons of which went to other Communist countries.

150 Young People Guests At Wiener Roast At Lake

One hundred and fifty young people, ranging in age from 7 to 16 years, enjoyed a wiener roast Friday night despite wet weather. The occasion, held at Lake Jacksonville, was sponsored by the Jacksonville Youth Association. Hot dogs and traditional trimmings and soft drinks were served during the two hour recreation.

Three large trucks and seven passenger cars were donated by interested persons to transport the large group to the lake area. Fifteen adults chaperoned the group including adult officers of the Youth Association: Arthur Harris, president; David Brown, secretary; and Eleanor Hoff, treasurer. A vote of thanks was extended to those donating transportation, several local businessmen and the Jacksonville Kiwanis club who helped finance the outing.

The entourage left at 4 p.m. for the Lake from Mrs. Harris' residence, 509 South West street, returning at 8 o'clock to the same location. The local Association is also planning a Christmas party for the young people, the details of which are as yet incomplete.

Merge Chambersburg And Meredosia PTA

MEREDOSIA — The Meredosia-Chambersburg PTA met in the grade school gym. Wednesday night, and after the call to order by president Don Grisham, the flag was brought in by Cub Scouts John Kunzeman, Carl Gerecke and Victor Sleving, and the pledge of allegiance was repeated.

The treasurer's report showed that the Halloween Carnival profits were $127.59.

Mr. Grisham read a card from the district secretary telling that Mrs. Harold Marshall of Jacksonville had been elected district director.

John Stanfield, vice-president and chairman of the membership committee, reported that membership was behind that of last year and reminded those present that cards were still available from any of the committee.

Mrs. James Major announced the December refreshment committee — Mrs. Herman Rausch, chairman; Mrs. Wilbur Kunzeman, Mrs. Don Davis, Mrs. Mike Stevens, Mrs. Gerald Dugan, Mrs. Verne Stinebaker, Mrs. Howard Ellett, Mrs. Stanley Summers, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Charles Bradley and Mrs. Frank Yeakel.

Mrs. Robert Pool, chairman of a committee from Chambersburg PTA, proposed a merger of the two organizations, with meetings alternating between Meredosia and Chambersburg. The merger was voted upon and passed.

It was decided that the January meeting would include a potluck dinner with the PTA furnishing meat, bread and butter, coffee and milk. Those coming are to bring a covered dish. The executive committee will decide the time, place and the details. The Chambersburg group has been social for several years, unaffiliated with either the state or national congresses.

Mr. Young made a plea for blood donors at the Bloodmobile in Jacksonville on December 4 and 5.

Miss Bonnie Pryor, county nurse, told of the value of a booster shot for polio two or three years after the original three shots.

Sgt. Don O'Brien, of the highway police, talked about highway safety and showed a film "And Then There Were Four."

After the meeting adjourned with a penny drill, cookies, coffee, punch and chocolate milk were served by Mrs. Harold Schroeder, Mrs. Richard Ruh, Mrs. Warren Edlen, Mrs. William Wilhite and Mrs. Dean Hobbs.

Cub Scouts
Thursday afternoon fourteen Cub Scouts, their den chief, Nicky Surratt, six den mothers and two other mothers drove to Springfield to the Capital airport. Their tour of the airport included a visit to the control tower, the National guard section, parachute packing and drying rooms.

Wed At Murrayville

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Darr

Miss Norma Jean Alcorn of Jacksonville and Gary Darr of Carrollton were married Friday evening, November seven, at the Murrayville Baptist church. The Reverend Vale Walkington performed the double ring service. Miss Lorene Sooy provided nuptial selections.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Katha Alcorn, 400 East Van-dulla Road and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Darr, Carrollton route five.

Miss Hannah Darush attended the bride and Richard Darr of Carrollton served his brother as best man.

The bride wore a street length dress of blue cotton lace with white feather hat. Her flowers were white carnations.

Miss Darush wore an apricot shade with white hat and corsage of carnations.

Mrs. Alcorn wore for her daughter's wedding a blue dress with red accessories and Mrs. Darr also wore blue. Both wore white carnations.

Members of the wedding party and relatives attended a reception at the home of the bride's mother following the ceremony. Assisting with the serving were June Alcorn and Paula Walkington.

Since their return from a wedding trip to Cincinnati, Ohio the newlyweds are making their home at 1008 West State street. The bride is employed at J. Cappe and Sons in this city and the groom at Greenfield.

Guatemala Topic By Mrs. McCarthy For Philatheas

The Philathea class of First United Presbyterian church met Nov. 12 at the home of Mrs. Margaret Grunty with Mrs. Elaine Gilpin as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Louise Hodges, president, conducted the business session. Mrs. Gerry Copeland led in devotion and Mrs. Alvahine McCarthy presented the program.

Mrs. McCarthy spoke on Guatemala which she visited the past summer. The speaker wore a lovely gold metallic thread on white woven native material costume which was in modern fashion. The material symbolic of the artwork of Guatemala. Colored slides taken on the trip by Mrs. McCarthy added much to the interesting program.

The next meeting, with another interesting program planned, will be held Dec. 10 at the home of Mrs. Irving Olson.

Amoma Class Names Officers

The Amoma Bible class of First Baptist church held a luncheon Thursday, Nov. 13 in Fellowship Hall with Mrs. Martha Gilbert and Mrs. Ella Ashby, hostesses.

Fifteen members and two guests, R. L. Dumas and Rev. R. N. McDonald, interim pastor, attended. A bountiful meal was served.

Mrs. C. R. Dowland, president, conducted the business session. An election of officers resulted in the following slate accepted: president, Mrs. Dowland; vice president, Mrs. Ruth Hawk; second vice president, Mrs. T. U. Smith; secretary, Mrs. Ella Ashby; assistant secretary, Mrs. Daisy Huff; treasurer, Mrs. F. L. Wilder.

Assistant treasurer, Mrs. Ida Bussey; teacher, Mrs. R. L. Dumas; assistant teachers, Mrs. Muri Briscoe, Miss Jennie Rabjohns.

The sum of $31.42 was collected for the third quarter. Articles were received from members for the church bazaar to be held Nov. 18.

A duel by Mrs. R. L. Dumas and Mrs. Nina Shawen, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Hawk, concluded the meeting.

Tomatoes are always canned in their own juice; other vegetables have water and salt, and sometimes sugar, added to them before being canned.

It's a good idea for expectant mothers to drink four cups of milk a day; nursing mothers need six cups.

Royal Neighbors Meet At Hillview

HILLVIEW—The Royal Neighbors of America in Hillview held their regular meeting Nov. 10 with Oracle Zella Ward presiding.

The Neighbors got together with a potluck supper in honor of Mrs. Robert Miller who with her family are returning to their home in Peru, Ind., after an absence of a few years. She received many beautiful handkerchiefs and cards expressing the Camp's reluctance in their going.

The hall was decorated in the holiday colors. Mrs. William Hunsnutt brought specially arranged pots of flowers for each table which were given out to members at the close of the evening.

It was announced during the meeting that Maude Norris had been appointed chancellor for the next year's Greene county convention of the R.N.A. to be held at Patterson.

A report on the soup and chili supper held on election day was given by Lella Hubbard. Over $70 was cleared which will be used for the card and flower fund and the usual needy projects participated in by the Neighbors.

Passavant Aid Deaconess Day Luncheon

The annual Deaconess Day Luncheon of the Passavant Memorial Area Hospital Aid Society was held Wednesday Nov. 12 at the Dunlap Hotel. This marked the 62nd anniversary of the founding of Passavant Hospital.

Tables were attractively decorated with fall flowers and autumn leaves by the social committee, headed by Mrs. Vern Smith and Mrs. Hester Nickel. The delicious luncheon featured baked chicken.

The invocation was given by Rev. Roy Goodell, pastor of the Winchester Methodist church. Greetings were extended by the Aid president, Mrs. E. W. Brown.

Mrs. Claude Davis, chairman of the Hi-Fever Follies, gave a brief report of the project. Mrs. Margaret Watson, program chairman, who spoke about the Student Loan Fund and the Scholarship Fund explaining how these funds are handled from the time received until used by the nurses. A brief discussion followed.

The program for the afternoon was given by Mrs. L. Vernon Caine ably assisted by Miss Pam Breeding a senior in Winchester High School and Mrs. Albert Her. Mrs. Caine presented chalk drawings depicting the four seasons, following each picture with an appropriate poem. Miss Breeding sang as Mrs. Caine drew for autumn, "Autumn Leaves," for winter, "Winter Wonderland," for spring, "It Might As Well Be Spring" and summer, "Summer Time."

The last drawing, Resurrection Lilies, was dedicated to the Deaconesses as a fitting tribute to their devotion.

The meeting closed with a benediction by Rev. Goodell.

Some housekeepers like to wax painted window sills and Venetian blinds because they say the waxing makes dusting easy.

Snow Flake Inn At Centenary Nov. 20th

The traditional holiday Snow Flake Inn at Centenary Methodist church will be held this year on Thursday, Nov. 20. The usual tasty luncheon will be served at three separate hours, 11 in the morning; 12 noon and 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Tickets may be purchased for adults and children according to time wishing service. All WSCS members of Centenary are selling tickets and they may be obtained at the church office.

Co-chairmen for this year's bazaar are Miss Bessie Harrison and Mrs. Grace Trotter.

Mrs. Walter Meyer is in charge of the kitchen and Mrs. Gordon Walker and Mrs. H. Dean Smith, co-chairmen for the dining room.

A Jacksonville Airman, James Glen Dyche, grandson of Mrs. Frank Hagan, 502 South Church street, and Sally Springmeyer Evans of Reno, Nevada, were united in marriage in September in Nevada. The bridegroom, Airman Second Class James Dyche, is stationed at Stead Air Force Base near Reno.

The ceremony was performed by the pastor of First Methodist church in Reno, the Rev. H. Earl Morris, Jr., at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Dyche's father is a practicing attorney in Reno.

The bridegroom is the son of Marion Atwood Dyche, formerly of Beardstown and the late Glen Dyche. He attended Jacksonville schools until entering military service.

Only a few friends attended the ceremony other than members of the wedding party. Mrs. Dale Edwards and Alfred Andrade, Miss Leora Drown and Thomas Westbury provided appropriate music for the occasion.

The couple left for an extended wedding trip that included San Francisco, California, and into midwestern states visiting at the Hagan home in this city.

Airman and Mrs. Dyche are making their home at 3340 Smith Drive, Reno, Nevada.

Dr. Scott Is Sorority Guest Speaker

Dr. Harvey Scott was guest speaker at the regular monthly dinner meeting of Omega and Xi Gamma Tau chapters of Beta Sigma Phi sorority held Nov. 10 at Hotel Dunlap. Dr. Scott spoke on "The End of Life, presenting an informative and interesting talk well received by the 28 members and guests attending.

Tables were decorated by Debra Floxth, Deane Harmon and Peggy Embody using the sorority colors and a lovely centerpiece of yellow roses at the speakers table. Guests names were placed in a bowl and Corrine Davidmeyer was presented the centerpiece after a drawing.

After the business session, conducted by president Ruth Linebaugh, history of Beta Sigma Phi was presented by Doris Reed. Louise Douglass spoke of Aims, Purposes and Scope of the sorority and Mary Helena Marger explained the significance of articles pertaining to the display on view.

Members of the Rachel Circle will prepare a booth selling homemade candies and jellies and preserves; Naomi Circle will provide gift items for the Work Basket Booth and Esther Circle will prepare and sell home-made pies, cakes and packaged mince-meat.

A galaxy of aprons for every occasion will be found at the booth being set up by members of Mary Martha Circle.

The popular Tots Spot, a favorite in past years, will be in charge of members of Ruth Circle. There will be a small Christmas tree at the doorway where 25-cent grab bag gifts will be sold. Mrs. Homer Baptist is chairman for the Tree project.

Bluffs Society Hears Talk By Sondra Pile

BLUFFS—The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Bluffs Methodist church met Thursday afternoon in the church with 16 members and two guests, Mrs. Harold Merris and Miss Nancy Whorton answering roll call with a Bible verse with "hope."

Devotions, A Decade of Human Rights, was led by Mrs. Margaret Watson.

Mrs. Harold Oakes presided at the business session. Reports of various officers were given. Mrs. Watson presented a brief statement on the World Federation of Methodist Women. The society will furnish cookies for Charute Air Force Base at Rantoul the second week in December. Those baking cookies are to have them to Mrs. Clyde Arnold not later than Dec. 9. A report was made on the shopping bags being made by the society and several were on display. Mrs. Floyd Hart presented another project, aluminum trays which was received with enthusiasm.

Gifts for the children at Cunningham Children's Home will be brought to the next meeting. Action for the study class was discussed, plans to be announced later.

The guest speaker for the program, Miss Sondra Pile, of the Winchester Methodist church who was a member of the Youth Caravan visiting a number of Methodist institutions in Illinois this past summer gave a very interesting report of her trip. She was one of three young ladies in Jacksonville District, interested in Christian service, chosen for the trip. An interesting discussion followed her talk. This was a most interesting and informative program.

Mrs. Jane Woodson closed the meeting with a Spiritual Thought for the day.

Delicious refreshments of persimmon pudding, nutmeats, candies and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Orville Gathard and Mrs. Gus Andres from tables decorated in keeping with the fall season.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Massey

Gerald Massey And Bride, Leona Werries, Making Home Southwest Of Jacksonville

Two hundred guests attended the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Leona Mae Werries of Bluffs and Gerald William Massey of Jacksonville held at St. Paul's Lutheran church near Chapin October twenty-fourth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Werries, Bluffs route one and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Massey, Jacksonville route two.

The ceremony, double ring, was performed by the pastor, Reverend Marvin Matzke with sermon delivered by Reverend Van McCullough. Mr. Werries gave his daughter in marriage.

White flowers in baskets and ferns decked the altar of the church. Tapers burned in candelabra and family pews were marked with white bows.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Louis Werries sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Raymond Werries.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Allen Petri of Bluffs and Miss Joyce Perry of Chapin, were her attendants. Richard Norfleet, Alexander, was best man and Robert Adams of Jacksonville, was groomsmen.

Ushers were James Werries, brother of the bride, and John Whitacre.

Bride Designs Gown The bride designed and made her wedding gown of white Chantilly lace over crisp taffeta. The formal dress was scalloped at the V cut neckline and sleeves were long coming to points over the hands. The fitted bodice fastened at the back with covered buttons to the natural waistline and the skirt fell in soft folds floor length with a scalloped hemline. A pearl and holo headpiece held secure her veil of illusion edged in lace and she carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations tied with wide satin ribbon.

The attendants wore street length frocks of Chantilly lace over taffeta with style much like the bride's gown. The backs of the dresses featured large bows at the V neckline with streamers falling to just above the dress hems. Mrs. Petri wore sapphire blue and Miss Perry poudre blue. They carried pink and white carnation colonial bouquets.

Mrs. Werries, mother of the bride, wore blue wool and pink carnations and Mrs. Massey, mother of the groom, wore blue crepe with pink carnations.

A reception was held in the basement of the church following the ceremony. Guests were registered by Mrs. John Whitacre. Miss Dorothy Chumley was in charge of gifts.

Pink and white were used in appointments at the serving table centered with mixed pink and white flowers. The three tiered cake, trimmed with pink, was baked and decorated by the groom's mother and sister, Mrs. Fred Massey and Mrs. John Whitacre. Guests were served cake, by Mrs. Whitacre; punch, Mrs. Vernon Lovekamp, and others assisting included Mrs. Carlton Schumacher.

The speaker will also discuss proposed improvements to be made during the coming years.

Mrs. Lucille Chandler will sing accompanied by Mrs. Ray. The public affairs committee, Miss Thelma Bacon, chairman, Miss Elizabeth Hardy, co-chairman, Colleen Surraut, Martha Mason, Grace Leslie, Marie Lansink, Lillian Carter and Louise Dennis, arranged the program.

School Menu To Be Published In Paper Each Week

As a service to pupils and parents in school district 117 this paper will publish each Sunday the menu being served in the school cafeterias and lunch rooms for the current week.

There may be some variations when circumstances demand but the menu listed for each day is that prepared on a monthly basis by the district lunch supervisor, Mrs. Leona Croneth.

The district lunch program provides a type A menu for all students. At Jacksonville High School there are optional dishes available cafeteria style.

The low cost to students is made possible by government surplus foods and a five cent allowance from the federal government for each student meal purchased. The menu is standard in all Jacksonville elementary, Junior and Senior High Schools, North and South Jacksonville, Lynnville, Woodson and Murrayville schools.

JUNIOR CLUB MEMBER ARRANGES FLOWERS

Mrs. William Davidsmeyer, whose family operates a florist shop in Wisconsin, displayed her individual talent in flower arrangement at the meeting Friday evening of the Jacksonville Junior Woman's Club in the Dunlap hotel banquet room. Mrs. Davidsmeyer is shown above with several seasonal floral arrangements designed from mums, glads, foliage, tapers, driftwood and beaded sprigs. Arrangements were presented to Mr. Warren Hudson, who will prepare Thanksgiving dinner for the greatest number of people among clubmembers; Mrs. Thomas Cramer, who will observe a birthday closest to Thanksgiving Day and Mrs. William Kitchen who observed her birthday Friday.

A large gathering of Junior women enjoyed a buffet served dinner with invocation by Mrs. Otto Beerp, Mrs. William Long was hostess for the meeting.

The speaker, Mrs. Davidsmeyer, was presented by program chairman, Mrs. Warren Hudson. The origin of a number of the displays was given by Mrs. Davidsmeyer who made and displayed settings for mantel, buffet, dining table and casual decor. She stressed generous use of foliage in the artistic hobby of flower arrangement.

Federation Contest — The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Jack Mathews. Mrs. Ben Lampi led in the pledge to the flag, Mrs. James Conte, American home and citizenship chairman, announced a federation sewing contest in which members were urged to enter.

The club voted to enter the community achievement contest. Members enjoyed bridge following the program.

Magazine Editor Speaks

Write graphically about what you know and think others would be interested in.

Weeks, who currently resides in the Beacon Hill section of Boston, related that he had accepted the manuscript of Ernest Hemingway's first short story—"Fifty Grand," for publication after it had been refused by the Saturday Evening Post and other leading magazines. It was a muscular story, he recalls, with the typical "short, staccato, punchy sentences," and "I knew it was good."

He read selections from Hemingway, including part of a short story included in his first book, "In Our Time." Titled "Big Two-Hearted River," Weeks pointed to this as the forerunner to Hemingway's recent "The Old Man and the Sea."

Speaking of the stream of consciousness technique which found its way into Hemingway's works, Weeks told of "the most awful effect during the depression when authors wrote about old maida in Cape Cod cottages in the rain, their minds full of grey thoughts which after conscientious contemplation, the authors would dismiss as valueless."

In the question-and-answer session afterward, Weeks predicted that Robert Frost, Thornton Wilder and Isaac Guiness would be considered for the Nobel prize next year.

Friendly Fellows To Sponsor Baked Ham Supper

Following a meal at Birdsell's Ranch House, the Friendly Fellows held the monthly meeting at Brooklyn church Tuesday, Nov. 11.

Committees were named for the baked ham supper to be sponsored by the club Jan. 26. The club also voted to purchase candy for the Sunday school Christmas treat for the Brooklyn Sunday school.

Ellis Brainer suggested that each member present at this meeting invite an inactive member to the December meeting.

Bill Smith suggested that the men in the club have a work day Tuesday, Nov. 18 at 6:30 p.m. in the basement of the church to paint the walls.

Those present were Rev. Clarence Bigler, Frank Bourn, Wayne Chambers, Wilbert Fanning, Ralph Mitchell, Glen Mulligan, William Smith and Dave Stevens. The next Friendly Fellows meeting will be Tuesday, Dec. 9.

Strawn Women Meet At Home Of Mrs. Cromwell

Mrs. Oliver Cromwell entertained the Strawn's Crossing Woman's Club at her home Tuesday. The president, Mrs. Adolph Boster was in charge of the business meeting. The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Roy Robson.

Get well cards were sent to Mrs. Eva Murray and Mrs. E. A. Deaton. Each member drew a name for the Christmas exchange.

The following officers were chosen: president, Mrs. Roy Fox; vice president, Mrs. Roy Newbery; secretary, Mrs. Albert Standish; assistant secretary, Mary Margaret Wax.

Miss Wax was in charge of the program and demonstrated various ways of wrapping Christmas gifts. She wrapped several packages and showed suitable wrappings for each member of the house.

Roll call was a Thanksgiving appreciation. During the social hour refreshments were served. Guests present were Mrs. William Hodgson, Mrs. Reggie Halligan and daughter, Tracy.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 25 at the home of Mrs. E. O. Cully on 246 East Pennsylvania.

Home Bureau Activities

The regular meeting of the Alexander Home Bureau was held at the home of Mrs. Paul Hermes. Mrs. James Luker, chairman, called the meeting to order. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Don Johnson, secretary. Fifteen members and one guest, Mrs. Edward Hermes, were present.

The next meeting is to be a Christmas pot luck dinner, to be held at the home of Mrs. John Becker, at 12:30 Dec. 9. Every member is to bring a hot and cold dish. There is to be a dollar gift exchange.

A motion was made to have an assistant hostess each month since the unit now has 17 members. It was seconded by Mrs. John Becker.

Mrs. John Becker, Mrs. Paul Hermes and Mrs. Don Johnson modeled their coats, which they made in tailoring classes given by Mrs. F. A. Johnson.

The major lesson "Yeast Bread Variations" was given by Mrs. Raymond Dwyer and the minor lesson "Care of House Plants" by Mrs. Leonard Bergschneider.

A bake sale was held at the close of the meeting.

Help-A-Neighbor Club Holds Meet At Patterson

PATTERSON — The Help-A-Neighbor Club meeting was held Wednesday, Nov. 12, in the home of Mrs. Cora Augur, in Roodhouse. Chicken pie, prepared by the hostess, was served with the potluck dishes brought in by the members.

Following the dinner hour the business meeting was held and the following members answered roll call: Pearl Clayton, Beale Hicks, Addie Westerhold, Cora Augur, Ida Seely, Hazel Smith, Hattie Nicholson, Alta Young, Alvina Cummins, Peggy Nichols and Martha Shafer. Mrs. Augur, Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Smith received gifts from their secret pals. The door prize was awarded to Mildred Wilkinson.

This meeting featured the annual auction, consisting of articles donated by the members and the proceeds amounted to $18.75, to be added to the club fund.

The meeting date of the club was changed from the second Tuesday to the second Wednesday of the month, and the December meeting, which will be the Christmas gift exchange, will be held in the home of Mrs. Pearl Johnson in Roodhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Sorrells and daughter of Peoria were recent afternoon visitors with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sorrells.

J. Meyers, Mrs. Richard Six of Griggsville; Mrs. Charles Lyman and Mrs. Richard McAllister, Pittsfield; Mrs. Orin Smith, Pearl.

Various scents in pressure-type containers are now in the market. Of the cologne variety, a little "whoosh" goes a long way.

Old Traffic Tickets Still Potent In '58

A Jacksonville traffic ticket carries as much wallop 1½ years after the offense as when it was issued, events showed Saturday morning in the court of Police Magistrate Fred Daniels.

Frank Lewis, now of California, formerly of Murrayville, squared up two traffic tickets that were issued by local police in June, 1957.

It came about in this way: Lewis complained to police Friday night that several articles of clothing had been taken from his car, which was parked near a tavern east of the city. At least one member of the night police force remembered his face.

When Lewis showed up Saturday in the court of Justice Charles Warzar, in connection with petty larceny proceedings against Phil Lee Davis, Pittsfield, and David Leroy Sappington, Valley City, a warrant was served by members of the sheriff's force on Lewis.

Lewis was arraigned in police magistrate court and fined $5 for running a stop sign and $20 for reckless driving — two original complaints. He also paid $7 city costs and $5 county costs.

The two men were fined $50 each in the court of Justice Warzar on petty larceny charges. Each defendant also paid $21.30 costs.

Other fines in police magistrate's court were Tom Flowers, $5 for no drivers license; Robert Kavase, $25 for reckless driving; John H. Decker, $10 fine and $2 costs for running stop sign and causing an accident; Donald Arnold, $10 no city sticker; Everett Cooper, $35 reckless driving.

Triplets Mark 17th Birthday At Jerseyville

JERSEYVILLE—The only triplets in this immediate area celebrated their 17th birthday anniversary Nov. 11. They are Martin Eugene, Carolyn Sue and Samuel Franklin Woodring, sons and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odie G. Woodring, 409 E. Carpenter street, Jerseyville.

The family resided in Kane when the triplets were born. They moved to Jerseyville seven months ago, Martin Eugene and Samuel Franklin are junior students at the Jersey Community High School. Their sister was forced to interrupt her studies because of poor health resulting from an attack of rheumatic fever.

There are four other daughters in the Woodring family. Janet and Barbara Woodring reside with their parents and the other girls are Mrs. Gene Calvert of Dow and Mrs. Donald Vinyard of Roodhouse.

Bonnie Seely Named White Hall Football Queen

WHITE HALL—Crowning of the football queen for 1958 was held at the High School on Tuesday night at 10 p.m. Bonnie Seely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Seely received the coveted honor.

Her escort was Gordon Liming, and Roberta Savage, basketball queen of 1957 crowned the new queen. Miss Savage was escorted by Bob Taylor.

Attendants to the new queen were candidates for the honor, the queen being chosen by the student body, and included Shirley Sorrells, freshman candidate, with her escort, Bob Pinkerton; Janet Collins, junior candidate, with her escort, Gary Phillips; Polly Ott, senior candidate, with her escort, Steven Rhoades.

The queen was presented a bouquet of red roses, and the maids and Miss Savage each received a rose corsage. Dancing to the music of Boots Brennan's orchestra followed the coronation.

Cashmere sweaters are now teamed for the first time with dyed-to-match cashmere skirts. Some sets add a third piece in the form of pure silk shirt. Skirts are lined.

While Face Of Paris Changes—Flea Market Lives On As Mecca For Tourists

By ROSETTE HARGROVE
NEA Staff Correspondent

PARIS —(NEA)—The Paris Flea Market, a "must" on the itinerary of every bargain-hunting American tourist, is about to become a victim of progress.

The gigantic junk pile, where you can buy just about anything, sprawls over 130 acres of land just outside the Porte de Clignancourt, which once marked the city limits. But the area is now well within Paris and too valuable to be left to its current use.

In place of many jerry-built shops and stalls, Paris city fathers have begun work on a vast housing project for low-income groups. Recreation fields, schools and a hospital also are planned.

The authorities were smart enough, however, not to eliminate entirely this major tourist attraction. So the sprawling market is being consolidated on a much smaller piece of land.

Some of the picturesque quality will be lost, but it will be easier on the feet of the shopper hoping to spot an "old master" or valuable antique during his wanderings.

What has developed into the biggest junk yard in the world started very humbly 80 years ago. The Paris ragpickers started going to the no-man's-land just outside the city's fortifications (which have now disappeared) to sift through their night's pickings. Although this was a military zone, the army closed its eyes.

Pretty soon the ragpickers organized themselves into a kind of syndicate. Little by little owners of junk shops added their unsold wares to those of the ragpickers, which then were displayed on the ground.

This went on for a while until one bright member of the fraternity built himself a booth made of old tin cans. Before long more and more makeshift shelters were built, which eventually housed entire families, and the area became known as "la zone." This construction was the beginning of the Flea Market.

Until after World War I the majority of Parisians had never visited the Market. Only the impoorish artist or student went there to pick up odd sticks of furniture for a few francs.

It was not until an antique merchant discovered and paid 20 francs for a valuable Jean Fragonard drawing that visits to the Flea Market became a favorite "slumming" expedition.

Progress may dictate that someday the rambling complex of sheds outside Porte de Clignancourt will be forced to a new location. But the love of Frenchmen and tourists for a good value assures that the Flea Market will never be exterminated.

Chicago Livestock Market Report

CHICAGO (AP) — The heaviest run of butcher hogs for any week since December 1956 had a bearish effect on the market this week, although the shipping outlet was the best in almost two years.

Most demand was for weights under 220 lbs and all barrows and gilts in this group held steady to 25 cents higher for the period while heavier weights were weak to 50 cents lower and sows weak to mostly 25 cents down.

Buyers paid $19.85 a hundredweight on Tuesday, the highest price in a month, for No. 1 grade offerings scaling 210 lbs.

Buyer preference in the slaughter steer market was for weights under 1,100 lbs and these offerings were steady while heavier weights declined as much as 25 cents.

The slaughter steers supply was somewhat larger, too, with offerings of that class up about 4 percent over the previous week and including more prime grade but about the same ratio of choice kinds.

There was a sharp drop in offerings of sheep compared with the previous week which was the largest since February and lambs were steady to 25 cents higher with the advance on woolled kinds.

The best demand was for offerings under 110 lbs while some buyers insisted on 100 lbs or less.

CHICAGO (AP) — Following is a summary of the hog, cattle and sheep markets for the week.

Hogs 100: barrows and gilts under 215 lbs steady to 25 higher, others weak to 50 lower. At the close No. 1 and 2 grade butchers under 220 lbs ranged upwards from 19.15 to as high as 19.75 with most No. 2 and 3 200-230 lbs 18.90-19.00 and bulk No. 2 and 3 230-270 lbs 18.00-18.50, a few lots up to 300 lbs brought 17.50. Most sows under 425 lbs brought 16.25-17.25, weights up to 550 lbs as low as 15.25.

Cattle 100: slaughter steers steady to 25 lower with bulk of the decline on weights over 1100 lbs. Scattered loads prime 1050-1350 lb slaughter steers 28.25-28.50. Bulk choice and prime 1150 lbs and below 25.50-28.00, choice and prime 1250 lbs 25.00-28.00, high choice 1025 lbs 28.00, load choice and prime 1650 lbs 25.00, good and low choice 1075 lbs 26.25, good steers 24.00-26.50, scattered loads choice and prime 900-1050 lb slaughter heifers 27.50-27.65, bulk good to high choice heifers 25.50-27.25, few utility and standard 20.00-25.00, utility and commercial cows 17.50-21.00, few standard to 22.00, canners and cutters largely 15.00-18.00. Utility and commercial bulls 22.50-25.25, good vealers 30.00-33.00, few choice to 34.00, utility and standard 20.00-29.00.

Sheep none: woolled slaughter lambs steady to 25 higher than closing prices last week. Around a double deck mostly choice 91-110 lb woolled slaughter lambs 23.50-23.75, good to mostly choice woolled lambs 22.00-23.25, bulk 22.75-23.25, small lots utility and good woolled lambs 17.00-21.50. Bulk good to mostly choice short, fed lambs with No. 1 to fall shorn pelts, the majority with No. 1 pelts, 21.50-22.25. Cull to choice slaughter ewes 6.00-8.00.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The big bull market in stocks rolled on this week, leaving record averages at all time record highs as the week closed.

It was the 12th week out of the last 13 in which stocks have advanced.

Improving business and hopes for further improvement next year helped the upturn, as did the ever present inflationary psychology.

The market roared ahead in the first two days of the week, both the high priced blue chips and the low priced speculative favorites finding eager buyers.

On Wednesday the upsurge lost a lot of power, although market averages eked out another record high Thursday definitely was a day of profit taking, causing a minor price retreat.

Friday's market started out as if more profit taking would cause a further price decline. It didn't turn out that way. The profit taking was well absorbed and before the day was out all Thursday's loss had been regained.

It was a speculative market, subject to wide price swings on rumors. Typical of this kind of action was Pfizer. It ran up more than 8 points Thursday on stock speculators. On Friday it dropped 2 1/2.

Zenith, Goodyear and Eastman Kodak responded at varying times to stock speculators.

Even that bluest of blue chips—American Telephone & Telegraph—was not safe from the rumors. Telephone pierced the 200 mark Monday to the accompaniment of a variety of rumors, including one that the traditional $9 a year dividend would be increased.

On Tuesday it sold as high as 202, the best price in 28 years. It ended the week at 200 1/4.

ESTIMATED RECEIPTS
CHICAGO (AP)—Estimated livestock receipts for Monday are 12,000 hogs, 23,000 cattle and 3,000 sheep.

GRAIN PRICES SHOW LITTLE CHANGE IN WEEK'S TRADING

CHICAGO (AP) — Speculative trading dominated the grain futures market almost entirely this week but it lacked a strong moving force either way.

Commercial interests remained on the sidelines virtually the entire period with only a small amount of scattered buying from time to time. Price changes most days were within fractions of a cent of the previous closes, leaving little opportunity for shifting of positions at more than slim profits.

As a result, near the end of the week traders were concentrating more and more on the December and March contracts believing that when the market does start to move it will show in those deliveries first.

Traders began acquiring long positions there at the expense of liquidating the distant contracts. Cash grain receipts have been unusually slow recently, reflecting determination on the part of producers either to accept better government loan benefits or force commercial prices higher.

At the end of the week, wheat was 1 1/4 cents a bushel higher on the nearby contracts to 1 1/2 lower on the distant offerings. December $1.90 1/4; corn 1/4 higher to 1 1/4 lower, December old type contract $1.12 1/2; oats 1/4 higher to 1/4 lower, December 65% rye 1 1/2 higher to 1/2 lower, December $1.32 1/4; soybeans 1/4 lower, November $2.13 1/4.

New York Bond Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Both U. S. government and corporate bonds posted gains this week. Trading in the government market was very light but the corporate rise was on expanded demand.

Industrial and rails led the corporate rally with solid advances. Utilities and investment quality issues improved on a slightly more moderate scale. Foreign dollar bonds closed steady.

Corporate convertibles were very active and higher, in line with the climb of their stock counterparts. The New York stock market closed out the week at an all-time record level.

Government bond gains ranged out to a full point and more despite the fact that the market was very thin with scant retail activity. The one was firm all week.

Tone of the new financing markets continued firm, although on slight volume in a week interrupted by Veterans Day. The steady tone continued a trend evident since early September.

Only One Major Team Undefeated-Untied And That's Louisiana

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The bubble burst Saturday and Rutgers came floating back to earth.

The Scarlet — who started all the fall hysteria back in 1959 — were beaten by the Quantic Marines for their first loss after eight consecutive victories.

The score was 13-12. But there was a mitigating circumstance. They'll be saying for years at New Brunswick, N.J., that the story might have been different had Rutgers not been deprived of the services of its ace back, Billy Austin, who was out with an injury.

So now there is only one undefeated-until major team in the country. That's Louisiana State, No. 1 team in The Associated Press poll this week. The Bengals from the Bayou played Mississippi State in a night game.

The undefeated but tied list also was trimmed by one, but it really didn't have too much significance. Iowa, ranked No. 2 behind LSU, lost to Ohio State 38-20.

But the Hawkeyes already have clinched the Big Ten's Rose Bowl berth.

The other members of the undefeated but tied club came through unscathed as the season rushed into the home stretch.

Army, No. 3, trounced Villanova 26-0; Auburn, No. 4, showed more than-usual power in defeat, besting Mississippi 16-16 on Gene Etter's 75-yard touchdown run in the fourth period.

Another major upset was turned in by Arkansas, beaten a half dozen times over the campaign. The Razorbacks turned on high flying Southern Methodist 13-6 in a Southwestern Conference game Texas Christian went to the top of the league with a 22-8 triumph over Texas.

And Nebraska upended Eastern powerhouse Pitt 14-6.

Oklahoma blanked Missouri 20-0 and won another trip to the Orange Bowl. It marked Oklahoma's 70th consecutive Big Eight game without defeat. A couple of ties were thrown in.

Princeton and Dartmouth wound up tied for first place in the Ivy League. Dartmouth turned back Cornell 32-15, while Princeton licked Yale 50-14.

California moved a step closer to the Rose Bowl with a 12-7 conquest of Washington.

Befuddled Illini Bow To Badgers, 31-12

Hackbart Passes Wisconsin To Easy Win At Champaign

By JERRY LISK

Associated Press Sports Writer
CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Versatile Wisconsin quarterback Dale Hackbart befuddled Illinois with his passing in a 31-12 victory Saturday which tightened the second-place Big Ten grip of the Badgers, ranked No. 5 nationally.

Hackbart ran to one touchdown, passed to another and his accurate arm set up a third for a triumph which left Wisconsin with a conference runner-up record of 4-1-1 behind already crowned Big Ten champion Iowa.

Hackbart's colleague, Sid Williams also figured in the squelching of underdog Illinois as he engineered the second Wisconsin scoring drive and plunged 5 yards for a touchdown.

Although jolted by a 15-0 first period deficit, Illinois refused to quit before a day's thrash of 45-937, and scored a touchdown each in the second and third periods.

The first time Wisconsin had the ball, Hackbart directed a 68-yard scoring march in seven plays and flashed the final four yards for a touchdown.

Hackbart's 16-yard touchdown pass to Ed Hart gave Wisconsin a 23-6 lead just before the first half ended.

And in the third period Hackbart ried passes of 26 and 33 yards in a 67-yard scoring march capped by John Hobbs' five-yard smash. Illinois perked in the second period with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Johnny Easterbrook to Marshall Starks. And in the third quarter Jim Brown plunged two yards for a touchdown to climax the best Illini showing of the day, a 67-yard drive.

Wisconsin threw a season high of 26 passes and Hackbart hit 8 of 15 for 127 yards, while Williams completed four of 11 for 160 yards.

After Wisconsin struck for its 15-0 first period lead, Illinois came to life with a 66-yard touchdown march in 7 plays. This second period drive was capped with Easterbrook's 32 yard pass to Starks who snared the ball on Wisconsin's 7 and high-stepped across.

But the Badgers made it 23-6 at halftime when, late in the second quarter, the Illini virtually handed away a touchdown on Jack Delveaux' 16-yard punt from his own end zone. On the next play, Hackbart whipped a scoring pass to Hart. Hackbart also scooted over for two points.

The Illini opened the second half with a 67-yard scoring drive in 14 plays. Easterbrook's 19-yard scamper to the Badger's 17 was the key play. Jim Brown scored from the 2, somewhat atoning for the first half injury of his brother, Bill Brown. Bill was carried from the field on a stretcher with a dislocated left elbow.

Leading 23-6 at this point, Wisconsin seved up the game in the third period with a 67-yard scoring march abetted tremendously by Hackbart's passing. On the sixth play of the drive, John Hobbs hammered across from the five.

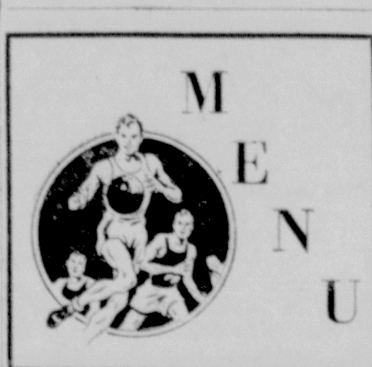

Hackbart passed to Ron Steiner for the two point conversion. Wis—Hackbart four run (Shwako kick).
Wis—Williams 5 run (W Hobbs run).
Ill—Starks 32 pass from Easterbrook (run failed).

Auburn Topples Georgia, 21-6

By MERCER BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—Rangy Richard Wood peered a perfect 44-yard scoring pass to Bobby Lauder Saturday and fourth-ranked Auburn powered on to a 21-6 Southeastern Conference football victory over Georgia.

For the mighty Tigers, it was their 22nd game without defeat. The two teams butted heads futilely until Wood's picture pass in the second quarter. Well protected by the Tiger line, Wood took aim at the feet Lauder, who pulled the ball in on the 5 and scored untouched.

Auburn got an unexpected break in the third quarter when Georgia's Bobby Walden, who went in to the same as the nation's leading punter with a 45.4 yard average, muffed a kick. The punt traveled only 15 yards, putting the Tigers in business at Georgia's 42.

Quarterback Lloyd Nix conducted Auburn into the end zone in nine plays, throwing to fullback Ed Dyras for the final 11 yards.

Georgia tried both passing and running but was unable to come close to scoring until Auburn had stepped out to a 21-0 lead in the fourth quarter. Then Charley Britt and Fred Brown Jr., collaborated on a 77-yard pass play to the Auburn 11. On the next play, a Britt pass to Don Soberdash got the score.

In the fourth quarter, Lauder added an insurance touchdown with a nifty 20-yard run.

Both lines played tremendous ball but the edge went to Auburn, which boasts the finest defensive record in the nation. Guard Zeke Smith, tackle Cleve Wester and center Jackie Burkett were among the Tiger standouts.

The first football contract between Notre Dame and Navy consisted of a handshake between Captain Paulsen and Adm. James Inman. The series began in 1927 and they have met annually.

TIGERS OPEN AT HOME TUESDAY

A small and inexperienced I.S.D. Tiger five will open their 1958-59 basketball season at home Tuesday night against Joe Doglio's Waverly Scotties.

Only three lettermen return from last year's squad which won 15 and lost 13. They are pictured above with coach Jim Spink from left to right, center Louie Edwards and guards, Andy Cherry and Dole Thompson.

Spink lost four lettermen due to graduation and is faced with the task of rebuilding his cage forces. The Tigers finished second in the PMBC conference tourney last year and garnered a fourth place berth in the Astoria meet.

Spink will form his starting unit from prospects A. C. Parish, Bill Davis, Bob Higdon, Dick Grab, Edgar Joyner, Melvin Lind and Edwin Carlson plus the three veterans.

Ashland Trips Tri-City, 66-64 On Free Throws

TRI-CITY—Wendell Stephenson was fouled just as the final gun sounded here Friday night and his free throw gave Ashland a thrilling 66-64 win in the opening game of the season. The losers scored nine quick points before the Panthers found the range and held a 19-9 edge after the first period.

Ashland came back in the second half and held its own. Terry Jarvis led the scoring parade for coach Dick Bellanca's Panthers with 26 tallies.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Junior halfback Jim Crotty of Seattle Saturday led an inspired 79-yard scoring drive in the third period that pushed Notre Dame to a 34-24 football victory over North Carolina's aerial circus.

In handling the Tar Heels their first loss in seven games this season and their 9th straight setback in the series, the Irish piled up a 21-6 lead early in the second quarter and then blew it in the third.

Quarterback Jack Cummings, who passed for two touchdowns in the first half, set up two more with aerials in the third. Fullback Don Kiochak scored both of them, on 3 and 1-yard smashes to end drives of 65 and 72-yards.

Cummings' try for the extra 2 points failed after each TD, but the Tar Heels moved into a 24-21 edge.

They Crotty went 56,339 fans to their feet with runs of 31, 9 and 11 yards to steer the Irish to a 79-yard scoring thrust capped by sophomore Red Mack's 15-yard gallop.

Western Illinois Wins IAC Crown In 38-23 Victory

MACOMB, Ill. (AP)—Western Illinois University Saturday won the championship of the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference with a strong second-half comeback which sunk Central Michigan 38-23.

Behind 7-0 at halftime, Western forged ahead in the third quarter by scoring three touchdowns.

Central Michigan bounced back into the game early in the fourth period on a 17 yard run by halfback Jerry O'Neil and O'Neil's two-point conversion on a run.

His run cut Western's lead to 22-15.

After an exchange of punts Central quarterback Curle Lemanski threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to end Frank Gawkowski. Central made a two-point conversion, again on O'Neil's running to take a 23-22 lead.

Garrison put the game on ice three minutes later when he ran 62 yards for the final touchdown. He added the conversion on a run.

Garrison set up Western's second touchdown with a 74 yard run which was halted on the Central 10.

The victory closed Notre Dame's home season and left the Irish with a 5-3 record with two games yet to play.

WINCHESTER—A 23-yard scoring dash by Jerry Claus in the final 35 seconds of play led Pittsfield to a non-conference triumph over Winchester here Friday night, 12-6. It was the final game of the season for both clubs.

Tom Brant put the Saukees in to an early lead with a three-yard plunge in the initial period. Darrell Spang's Wildcats came back to tie the score in the second stanza on an 11-yard run by fullback Don Savage.

Glen Smith's aggregation wound up with a two win, six loss record for the year. Winchester finished with a 4-4-1 mark.

TCU Smothers Longhorns, 22-8

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Fiery Hunter Enis awoke the slumbering giant of Texas Christian for a second-half rally that beat Texas 22-8 Saturday and put the Horned Frogs alone atop the Southwest Conference football race.

The Longhorns, already eliminated from championship consideration, soundly thrashed TCU for a half and led 8-0.

But midway of the third period the Frogs came to life and swept 68 yards on the running of Jack Sikes and the passing of Enis. From the 1-foot line Enis rammed across for a touchdown then passed in the end zone to Spikes for the two points that tied the score.

That set off a Texas Christian explosion. Center Dale Walker intercepted a pass from sophomore Larry Cooper of Texas to set up a second touchdown early in the fourth period. Walker ran to the Texas 23. Marvyn Laaser gained seven and Spikes hammered to the 11. Then Enis passed to end Jimmy Gilmore in the end zone.

Later TCU smashed 52 yards for its third touchdown with Laaser turning passer to throw to Marshall Harris in the end zone for 41 yards and the score.

Texas scored midway of the first period after Bob Harwell, a guard, intercepted an Enis pass on the TCU 39.

Iowa Fades In Final Quarter And Drops 1st Loss Of Season

By L. E. SKELLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP)—Ohio State's Buckeyes, led by bounding Bob White and dashing Don Clark carved a 38-28 scar on Iowa's Big Ten football crown Saturday in a spectacular offensive duel.

Iowa, gunning for its first undefeated Big Ten season since 1922, matched Ohio touchdown for touchdown through three quarters but faded in the stretch under the pounding drives by White, a 210-pound fullback, and thrush of his Buckeye mates.

The defeat also marked the first loss of the season for Iowa, No. 2 in the national AP poll, despite a 13-13 tie with Air Force Academy Clark, who had a slight blemish on an otherwise perfect record.

The deciding blows Saturday were struck through a grueling Iowa line as a heavy mist covered the playing field midway in the fourth period.

Ohio, the dethroned 1957 champion, punched 61 yards for the touchdown which sent the Buckeyes into a 35-28 lead. White carried the ball on 11 of 14 plays for the decisive marker. He hit over from the one and Dave Kilgore added his fifth conversion.

Iowa, which had rallied from every other Ohio touchdown, started out again but Dick Le Beau intercepted a deflected pass on the Ohio 30 and returned the ball to midfield.

Ohio then slashed toward another touchdown but after reaching a fourth and two situation on the Iowa 2, Kilgore returned to the game and booted a field goal from the 8.

Whatever hopes the sellout Iowa crowd of 38,445 had died as the ball sailed between the posts for a 38-28 score with only 2 minutes and 12 seconds left in the game.

White's last period touchdown was his third of the day. He ran 71 yards after breaking through the Iowa line in the second period, and got another later in the period on a smash from the one.

Clark, back at physical peak for the first time since early in the season, had touchdown runs of 25 and 37 yards.

Quarterback Randy Duncan was Iowa's big hero. He bettered his own school record by completing 23 of 33 passes for 249 yards, one going for a touchdown to Willie Fleming.

Highlanders Start 2nd Season Of Sports Activity Saturday

The MacMurray College Highlanders, who won 15 of 25 games last year, will start their second season of sports activity Saturday, Nov. 22, at Hannibal-LaGrange Junior College.

Coach Bill Wall will turn his men loose against a team that last year lost twice to MacMurray, 75-63, and 64-61. The Scotsmen begin a 24-game schedule, with the first of 12 home games to be played Tuesday, Nov. 25, in the Hardin avenue field-house against Lincoln College. The game starts at 7:30.

With a three-inch height advantage, averaging 6-3, Lincoln will be gunning for its second victory in three contests with MacMurray. Last year, the Highlanders lost their "first" game, 111 years' at JHS to the Railsplitters, 89-88, before winning a 91-84 overtime victory later in the season at Lincoln.

It was in that game that Gary Little, 1957 JHS graduate, scored 49 points for the individual scoring record at the new men's college. He ended the season with 501 points to his credit, on a shooting average of almost 43%.

The 5-10 sophomore will be back in the starting lineup for Saturday's game only a few hours after he will be married. Little, the locals' 77.1.

Coach Wall is optimistic over the MacMurray offense on the basis of the team's showing in scrimmage sessions against several industrial league teams in Springfield.

"But our defense is still short of what is to be desired," Wall said. Defense was one of the Highlanders' glaring weaknesses last year, with the opposition averaging 74.6 points per game against the locals' 77.1.

Harry Grayson's SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The New York Giants lined up strong to the right with the ball on their 34. This was early in the second period and the game was scoreless. The Giants wanted big yardage this time and Charley Conerly started fading on the count as Johnny Cannaday, the center, led him with a good snap.

Conerly looked downfield, then sent a firm spiral toward George Chevero, the big back from Fordham, who grabbed it on the Boston Yanks' 36, tried to get away from a tackler, but couldn't. He lateraled to Carl Fennema, who was alone. Carl went the rest of the way.

The crowd of 7,428 sitting in Fenway Park for this night game stirred a little and Conerly trotted toward the sideline where Steve Owen, the Giants' coach, gave him a pat for throwing the first touchdown pass of his National Football League career.

The date was Sept. 23, 1948. The Giants were using the old A formation, a single wing, and featured such stalwarts as Paul Governali, Tex Coulter and Frank Reagan.

Ted Collins and Kate Smith owned the Yanks and were starved to death in the Hub, running a poor second, interest-wise, to the colleges and a pair of Braves' baseball pitchers, young Warren Spahn and the older Johnny Sain, who were moving Lou Perini's club toward its first pennant.

THIS SEEMS ANCIENT history. But Chuckin' Chuck Conerly, as he was known at Mississippi, was far from being a recruit even then. He was a mature athlete of 27 who had played four years at Ole Miss, interrupted by four years with the Marines at places like Iwo Jima.

Conerly was throwing leather in the severest type of college competition in 1940. When you figure his high school play — and he's been pitching since his grammar school days — the guy goes back 22 years in the toughest of all games.

This was all we could think of when Conerly kept picking himself off the ground play after play and bouncing back to throw defense-wrecking passes for two straight Sunday afternoons as the Giants rose to defeat the hitherto unbeaten Cleveland Browns and Baltimore Colts.

THE HAIR HAS MORE than a smattering of gray now. It takes a couple of post-game cigarettes in front of the locker before the job of getting back in street clothes can be tackled.

But Conerly now has pitched more touchdown passes than anybody in the history of professional football with the lone exception of Sammy Baugh, who operated with superior Washington Redskins teams when defenses weren't quite as rugged as they are today.

After his all-out performance had done the job against the Colts before a record 71,163 at Yankee Stadium, Conerly was standing in front of his locker talking to football writers when Jack Mara of the front office came over.

"Give that old man some room, let him sit down," Mara smiled.

"I may not get up if I do that," Conerly said softly.

WHEN CONERLY HAS a bad day his passes don't get any place and New York fans, adept at singling out a poor performance by him, fill the Bronx yard with boos. The Giants, more often than not the past two years, wind up going with Don Heinrich at quarterback.

When the money games come up, however, Conerly looks over the defense. To Charley, the big play is a touchdown or a first down when it's third and 13.

The switch from single wing tailback to T quarterback when the Giants changed in 1949 put years on Conerly's life as a combatant.

"Put me in a rocking chair," he explains.

Not exactly. The Browns had him on the floor so much, if it were a fight Conerly would have been ruled a technical knockout victim.

Against Baltimore, Gino Marchetti, the end, kept chasing him and Charley had to duck time and again or he would have been knocked stiff. But he was throwing. One to Kyle Rote — in which he put the ball in the last available space on the field — was a beauty. The game-breaker was thrown from his knees with tacklers trying to eat him.

EXPLAINING THE VICTORY over Baltimore, Charley said, "They had this young boy linebacking and then they moved another young boy in there."

When he said "young boy" he meant it.

When Charley Conerly some day reaches the end of the road and goes back to his Clarksdale, Miss., cotton farm, the Giants are not going to release him.

"They are going to give him an old-age pension."

Quarterback Situation In NFL Is Startling

By JIM KENSIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

The quarterback situation in the National Football League is startling.

In pro football the quarterback is comparable to the pitcher in major league baseball. If you do not have a good one, you're in trouble.

Yet here is the situation as the NFL hits the two-thirds mark of the 1958 season with a full schedule of six games Sunday.

The Baltimore Colts are at Chicago for a Western Conference showdown with the Bears. Johnny Unitas, the Colts' star quarterback, is still on the injury list. The Bears, who have lacked a really superior signal-caller since Sid Luckman retired a decade ago, again must go with a combination of Ed Brown, Zeke Bratkowski and George Blanda.

The Cleveland Browns, beaten two straight because their passing game could not bail out a stalled running attack, are at the Washington Redskins, who got the word Friday that No. 1 quarterback Eddie LeBaron was ailing and not being counted on to face the Browns. Either little-used Ralph Guglielmi or untested Rudy Buker will have to guide the Redskins if LeBaron fails to recover from a flu-type attack.

The Browns will assign go with Milt Plum, but last week he had to be lifted for rookie Jim Ninowski when unable to pass effectively in the Browns' loss to the Lions.

San Francisco, with Y. A. Tittle back at the helm and reports his morale needs boosting, is at Detroit, where Tobin Rote, perhaps the top all-around signal-caller in the league awaits them.

The Chicago Cardinals, with veteran Lamar Lundy and rookie M. C. Nevels alternately losing the QB job, are at Philadelphia. Norm Van Brocklin, former Los Angeles star, can still throw that ball for the Eagles, but he is at a definite disadvantage in this era of running quarterbacks.

Green Bay, able to score only one touchdown in the last two games under the direction of Babe Parilli and Bart Starr, is home to the Los Angeles Rams and the much-improved Billy Wade.

Only at Pittsburgh, where the charged-up New York Giants meet the Steelers can a top quarterbacking battle be expected. And then it will be only if the oft-erratic Charley Conerly of the Giants can continue his stand-out play of the last two weeks.

Bobby Layne, who will guide the Steelers, couldn't connect for a TD pass for three games after coming to Pittsburgh in a trade, but he has thrown for seven in the past two games.

The Giants (5-2) are tied with Cleveland for the Eastern Conference lead and are four-point favorites over the Steelers (3-4).

The Colts (6-1) have a capable replacement for Unitas in George Shaw, but even with three scoring strikes last week, Shaw was unable to beat the Giants. Baltimore's 24-21 loss tightened the Western race, and the Browns (5-2) have much the better of the schedule the rest of the way.

Rushaway was a most durable horse. In 1936 he won the Illinois Derby at Aurora and the next day won the Latoria Derby at Covington, Ky.

Foxy Maude made the first start of her career at the age of 6. She won by eight lengths on Sept. 12, 1938.

BLUEBOYS IN FULL-SWING FOR OPENER AT PRINCIPIA

The 1958-59 edition of the Blueboy squad will have almost a completely new look. The Blueboys will have a new coach in Bill Merris, a former hoopster at the Hilltop. This Monday Merris expects to make his final cut. Of the original 25 men who reported for practice only 15 will be left. Of these 15 there will probably be quite a few new faces.

There are only five returning lettermen and there is a possibility that some of the newcomers will have a couple of the veterans out of positions on the squad. Because of the great lack of height, the competition has been very keen.

The returning lettermen are Carl Moore, Neal Hart, Larry Scott, Larry Brown and Jim Wallace. Moore will probably be the biggest man on this year's Blueboy edition. Carl stands 6'4" and weighs 210 pounds. He is a two year letterman and senior from Rochester, Ill., where he lettered in basketball four years and track two years. A rugged rebounder, Carl is expected to be the Blueboys' big man under the backboards.

Hart, a Junior from Arenzville, Ill., is in his second season on the Hilltop. Hart is 6' and usually plays at a forward position. Neal, in high school, lettered four years in basketball and baseball, and two years in track and football.

Scott, a Junior from Jacksonville, is in his third season on the I.C. campus. A one year letterman, Larry is expected to strengthen the guard positions. In high school, Scott lettered three years in basketball and baseball, and two years in football.

Brown is a Junior guard from Marion, Ill. A two year letterman for the Blueboys, Brown is expected to pick up where he left off last season. Last year Larry was placed on the second all-conference team. He also lettered four years in basketball, two years in track and one year in football.

Out Undergoes Surgery After Car Collision

GULFPORT, Miss. (AP)—Former National League slugger Mel Ott, a member of baseball's hall of fame, underwent surgery Saturday following a two-car collision in which his wife was injured and a 50-year-old man killed.

Ott and his wife, both 49, suffered fractures of both legs and multiple cuts and abrasions. His wife also had a broken arm.

Officers said they were unable to determine how the accident happened. Ott's late-model station wagon and a sedan driven by Leslie S. Curry, Sr., collided as the Ott's pulled away from a roadside cafe.

Police said heavy moisture in the air, which made a foggy mist cloud windshields, could have reduced visibility.

Dr. Charles Floyd of Memorial Hospital said Ott's condition improved to the point where he could undergo surgery. Dr. Floyd said the operation on Ott's leg will include setting bones, cleaning damaged tissue and placing the leg in traction.

Mrs. Ott, Dr. Floyd said, will undergo surgery eventually, but he added "we're not considering it at the moment."

Both Ott and his wife, Dr. Floyd said, are still on the critical list. Curry, a Bay St. Louis carpenter and father of seven, was alone in his car.

Ott, born in Gretna, La., and a resident of suburban Metairie, retired from baseball in January, 1953, after a career that started in 1926 with the New York Giants. He went to the majors as a catcher without any minor league experience, but Giants' Manager John McGraw converted him into an outfielder.

He played 22 seasons before retiring from the playing field in 1947. He was the National League's home run leader four times, played in 2,730 games and had a lifetime batting average of .304.

Ott managed the Giants for six seasons before resigning in 1948.

TARPON DISCOVERED WACHAPREAGUE, Va. (AP)—For years fishermen took up tarpon fishing on their nets on the Atlantic side of Virginia's Eastern Shore. Sport fishermen tried but nobody caught any.

Claude Rogers, director of Virginia's Salt Water Fishing Tournament, wouldn't give up. He caught the first one in 1955, a 90-pounder. In 1956 a Norfolk angler caught the second one. But this year Virginia fishermen under Rogers' direction hit the jackpot and numerous tarpon have been brought up their nets on the shore.

Illinois' 16-0 victory over Michigan State marked the Spartans' first football shutout in 40 games. Wisconsin blanked MSU 6-0 in 1954.

Jockey Ted Atkinson has won the Pimlico Special three times—Capot, One Hitter and Tom Fool—all for Greentree Stable.

while in high school.

Wallace is a two year letterman from Jacksonville, Ill. Jim stands 6'2" and weighs 180 pounds. He sees most of his action from the forward and center positions.

The first game for the Blueboys will be December 2, when they travel to Principia for an engagement with the Indians. Last year the Blueboys met Principia three times, losing two conference games to them and beating them for third place in the McKendree Holiday Tournament. The first home game for the Blueboys will be Dec. 6 when they entertain Concordia of St. Louis.

Northwestern's sophomore, Dick Thornton, simply couldn't get through Purdue's web-like defense. He attempted 14 passes, completed four, and had three of them intercepted.

Meanwhile, Fichtner, Bob Spoo and Bernie Allen displayed steady, if not brilliant, quarterbacking to keep the Boilermaker attack in high gear through most of the game even though Purdue failed to score anything more than 2 points on a safety in the second half.

Northwestern's only score came with eight seconds remaining when Chip Holcomb hit Ray Purdin with a 65-yard scoring pass.

The victory was Purdue's sixth against one loss and one tie, and gave the Boilermakers a 3-1-1 record in the Big Ten. The loss was Northwestern's third in six conference games and made the Wildcat season record 5-3.

The Boilermakers left the issue beyond doubt early in the second quarter when they piled up a 21-0 lead. Northwestern took the opening kickoff and on the first play from scrimmage, Ron Burton fumbled and Laraway recovered on the Wildcat 34.

Illinois Will Try To Even Grid Series With Northwestern Saturday

CHAMPAIGN, Ill.—Illinois can even one of its oldest football rivalries with a victory over Northwestern Saturday. Going into the game, Illinois has 23 victories, Northwestern 24, and four games have resulted in ties.

The powerful running of fullback Ray Nitschke, and the passing and running of quarterback Tom Haller helped the Illini to a 27-0 victory last year, nearly closing the gap in the all-time standings.

Nitschke had his greatest day in three seasons, blasting the Wildcat line for 170 yards in 21 carries, for a 8.1 average, and scoring two of Illinois' touchdowns. Haller completed four passes for 43 yards and ran up a 54-yard total on option plays.

Illinois-Northwestern games haven't always turned out so well for Coach Ray Eliot's teams.

In 1955, a heavily favored Illini aggregation struggled against a strong Wildcat line, and could only emerge with a 7-7 tie. Northwestern outgained the Orange and Blue by more than 100 yards and even had a last minute scoring chance, but failed.

Then, in 1956, the Wildcats shrugged off a six-point deficit and squeaked out a 14-13 win on Bob McKeiver's two successful extra point tries.

Games in the early '50's provided many gridiron thrills. The 1950 contest was typical.

Needing only a victory to go to the Rose Bowl, Illinois and All-American Johnny Karras moved confidently into Dyche Stadium, only to watch an angry Wildcat team conjure a 14-7 upset of Illinois.

Illinois evened the score in 1951 by grabbing the conference title and Rose Bowl trip when Sam Rebecca's field goal gave Eliot's team a 3-0 triumph.

More Wildcat heroics in 1952 upset Illinois' football machinery when Northwestern quarterback playing field including the referee, and coaches McJordan and McKnight. The cake, baked by Nancy Lawson Rich, was presented to Coach and Mrs. Jack Jordan.

Completing the scheme were floats in red and white with pennants representing the eight schools played in the conference by the teams with the Roodhouse colors of red and white topping the rest and inscribed, "Champions." Pennants embossed with the names of the guests formed the place cards. Pictures taken by Coach Jordan of the players also appeared before the plates of the football boys.

The program opened with prayer offered by Superintendent Charles C. Barlow. Movies taken of the various games by William Day were shown and the program ended with the singing of the traditional Railroaders song.

Serving as general chairman were Mrs. David Cheek and Mrs. Lloyd Welsh; chairman of the loyalty committee was Mrs. Delbert Winters and chairman of the dining room committee were Mesdames John Whitworth and John W. Roberts.

The mothers of the football boys met to elect the following officers: Chairman of the mothers group for 1959, Mrs. Ray Camp; assistant chairman, Mrs. John W. Everett; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Mervin Henry; program chairman, Mrs. Leroy Hopkins.

Purdue Outclasses Northwestern, 23-0

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Purdue's powerfully balanced Boilermakers junked Northwestern's hopes for a lofty Big Ten finish by blasting the once smooth-working Wildcats 23-6 Saturday.

A crowd of 38,421 had hardly settled in its seats when Purdue recovered a Northwestern fumble on the first play from scrimmage and then counted on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Ross Fichtner to Tom Frankhauser to go ahead to stay.

The Boilermakers never missed their No. 1 fullback, injured Bob Jarus, as Len Wilson, Tom Barnett, Jim Redinger and Jack Laraway functioned perfectly behind a line that wouldn't make any mistakes.

Two of Purdue's touchdowns resulted from recovered fumbles while the Boilermakers played the entire first half in Northwestern territory in running up a 21-0 halftime lead. Not until the third quarter was Northwestern able to move into Purdue territory, and that resulted from a 14-yard punt return by Ron Burton to the Boilermaker 49.

Northwestern's sophomore, Dick Thornton, simply couldn't get through Purdue's web-like defense. He attempted 14 passes, completed four, and had three of them intercepted.

Meanwhile, Fichtner, Bob Spoo and Bernie Allen displayed steady, if not brilliant, quarterbacking to keep the Boilermaker attack in high gear through most of the game even though Purdue failed to score anything more than 2 points on a safety in the second half.

Jaycees Sponsor March Of Dimes; Bill Carl Director

Bill Carl has been appointed Morgan County director for the 1959 March of Dimes. It was announced yesterday by Jaycees officials who are sponsoring the local campaign. The drive will be held in January.

Expanded Program
The polio-fighting organization is expanding into a broad new force that will tackle health problems on a wider front and no longer will confine its activities to a single disease. Initial new goals include arthritis and birth defects (congenital malformations).

"I am confident that the people of Morgan county, who helped make possible victory over polio through their contributions to the March of Dimes over the past 20 years, will give even greater support to the National Foundation's expanded program in the future," the director said.

The director stressed that while solution of the problems of arthritis and birth defects are the immediate new goals of the March of Dimes, the organization also will follow leads as they develop in the fields of virus research and studies of the central nervous system.

Name Chairman
John Vahle has been appointed chairman and John Brummett, co-chairman by the Jaycee organization to help bring the January campaign to a successful conclusion. Mrs. Keith Schuman of the Junior Women's Club has been appointed chairman of the Mother's March on polio which will be conducted during the campaign.

All three attended a meeting in Chicago recently of March of Dimes county leaders from Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin.

Care and rehabilitation of all polio victims is to be continued as in the past, and beginning in 1959, direct patient aid will be offered to young people through 18 suffering from arthritis and certain types of birth defects.

At the same time, Vahle and Brummett noted that polio will still require a major share of March of Dimes funds in 1959. Local National Foundation chapters will spend approximately $19,000,000 on direct aid to patients this year. There are still more than 50,000 patients on their rolls, most of them long term cases. And since many areas, principally those where use of the Salk vaccine is least widespread, report more polio cases this year than in 1957, the polio needs in 1959 can still be expected to be substantial.

The 1958 March of Dimes last January raised $35,000,000 in the last national appeal exclusively for polio. The 1959 appeal, to be held January 3-31, must virtually double last winter's effort, campaign leaders said.

State To Issue Identification Cards To Doctors
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Pocket identification cards will soon be issued to Illinois medical practitioners, the State Registration and Education Department said Saturday.

The move is designed to protect the public from fraudulent practitioners. Department Chairman Vera M. Binks said the cards will be issued to approximately 15,000 Illinois physicians, surgeons, osteopaths and chiropractors within a few days.

The cards, being issued for the first time in the state, are valid for two years or until the next renewal period, June 1959. Legislation enacted by the 70th General Assembly requires all members of these licensed professions to renew certificates in even years.

Betty Grace Weds John R. Jackson
John R. Jackson and Miss Betty Jane Grace, both of this city, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of Justice of the Peace Charles K. Warwar on West Morton avenue. The ceremony was performed at 9:30 p.m. Jackson is a member of the U.S. Air Force and is being transferred to a base in California. He is currently stationed at Chanute Field.

I.C. Produces Beckett's 'Endgame' Drama

"Endgame" is the title of the Illinois College Hilltop Players' forthcoming dramatic production in the Jones Memorial Chapel on the I.C. campus Friday and Saturday, Nov. 21 and 22, at 8 p.m.

The play is a philosophical drama by Samuel Beckett. When presented in New York, critics' opinions of the play ranged from praise to disgust; some called the work an insult to their intelligence, and others said it was the next major step in the evolution of drama.

"Endgame" has only four characters: Hamm, Clov, Nell, and Nagg. Hamm, who always sits, is played by Jim Symons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyndell Symons of 1337 S. Clay, Jacksonville, and a senior at Illinois College majoring in speech and drama.

Alan Engle, who plays Clov (who, unlike Hamm, is unable to sit so he always stands), is a senior whose field is Spanish. He is a native of Highland Park, Ill.

Nell, Hamm's mother, who lives in an ashcan, is played by Olive Brown, a senior English major from Cranston, R. I.

Glenn Perry, a freshman from Katanah, N. Y., plays Nagg. Hamm's father, who also lives in an ashcan. These latter two characters prompted "Life" magazine to refer to the play as the "Ashcan School of Drama."

The plot of the play deals with man's relation to man, to the earth, and to God. Tickets for "Endgame" may be purchased in the Dean's office in Tanner Library at Illinois College from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Single admissions are $1.25.

Mail orders should be addressed to the drama department of the College. These orders should specify the date of performance, and the tickets may be claimed at the door. Additional tickets will be available at the door. All seats are reserved.

Henry H. Brant, Former Signal Operator, Dies
Henry H. Brant of Barrow, Ill., passed away at Our Saviour's hospital at 9 a.m. Saturday.

Mr. Brant was born July 12, 1876, in Missouri. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Brant. He is survived by his wife the former, Ida McCance. Mr. and Mrs. Brant celebrated their gold wedding anniversary in 1955.

Also surviving are four sons: Gilbert of St. Louis, Herbert of Roodhouse, Woodrow of Roodhouse and Carl of White Hall. There are also 11 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

He was a retired railroad man having served the G.M. & O. railroad as a signal operator and was a member of the Order of Railway Telegraphers.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m. at the Mackey funeral home in Roodhouse. The Rev. Harry Potter will officiate. Interment will be in Fernwood cemetery in Roodhouse.

Von R. McClure Dies In Texas
Von R. McClure, a resident of the Berea community, passed away at his winter home in San Bonito, Texas, Saturday at 9:20 a.m. He had been there since October 1.

He was born in Princeton, Ind., April 8, 1887, and married to Pearl Robinson in 1918. She preceded him in death in 1957. He leaves one brother, Claude, Mishawaka, Ind., and several nieces and nephews. He was a retired farmer.

The body will be brought to the Williamson Funeral home and will arrive late Monday evening. Services will be held at the funeral home at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday. Rev. Robert Campbell officiating. Burial will be in Yatesville cemetery.

Friends may call anytime Tuesday. The family requests no flowers be sent.

RECREATION WORKSHOP
In the meetings you attend, who leads recreation? When the subject is discussed at PTA, civic club and service organization, who is the leader? Who does the job for your church, school, club and community group in the field of recreation?

It's the people who know how, of course. A recreation workshop is being arranged to teach more people the skills of leading recreation. The workshop is to be held November 20 at Farm Bureau Building in Jacksonville.

Dale Hewitt, Scott County Farm Adviser, says the workshop is open to everyone interested in recreation.

The two-hour session, starting at 1:30, will include the making of simple crafts and social recreation accessories. Among them will be party favors and yarn dolls, sock puppets and Saucy Satellites.

For the puppet, bring a couple of worn out socks, buttons, yarn, thread, and scraps of cloth. A roll of colored sheet paper will do for the "satellite." You are asked to bring last year's Christmas cards and some crocheted cotton to make a multi-purpose basket.

The evening session, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., will include pre-party activities, mixers, starters, games, music, dancing, and signatures. These can be used for county or community meetings, for club meetings, in the home and for all boy and all girl or mixed group parties. And there will be a touch of home and family fun.

Personals
Mrs. Everett Patterson is flying from St. Louis today, Sunday, November 16, to Portsmouth, Va., where she will visit her daughter and family, the Don Glichrist. Mr. Patterson will join them the following week. The Pattersons expect to return Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Pam Breeding, Miss Virginia O'Donnell and Miss Sharon Schaefer spent Saturday in St. Louis.

Mayor Horace Walmsley returned Thursday, November 13, from St. Louis where he attended the annual dinner of the National Defense Transportation Association at the Sheraton-Jefferson Hotel. On Monday and Tuesday of this week he was in Springfield attending the forty-fifth annual session of the Illinois Municipal League.

Miss Zelma Barrowman of St. Louis is spending the weekend with the Fred Thadys.

Local Man Takes Part In 'Rocky Shoals' Operation
A Jacksonville soldier, Pfc. Joseph L. Witter, an army cook, has recently completed a ten week training in the large scale army maneuver known as exercise Rocky Shoals which included about 60,000 men of Army, Navy and Air Force branches.

The operation took place in the southern California range known as the San Lucien Mountains. On Nov. 21 the 121st Signal Battalion of which Witter is a member will leave Camp Roberts, Calif., by motor convoy to return to Fort Riley, Kansas.

Soon after returning to Fort Riley, Witter will report to Port Lewis, Wash., for shipment to Korea. Witter, who has a total of five years and ten months in the army, has spent two years and six months in Japan. This will be his third overseas tour of duty.

He is one of a family of three sons, all in the service. Sgt. Richard S. Witter of the 10th Army Corps is stationed at Fort Lawton, Wash., and has a total of six years and ten months in the service.

Pfc. Norman F. Witter of the 97th Engineer Company at Ascom, Korea, has served in the Army for a total of one year and nine months.

The Witter brothers are sons of Cecil Witter and the late Mrs. Elizabeth Witter, both of Jacksonville.

MOTHER OF LOCAL WOMAN DIES IN GRAND RAPIDS
Mrs. Sophia Thomas of 609 Charles street, S. E., Grand Rapids, Mich., passed away Friday afternoon.

Services will be conducted Tuesday at Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Thomas was the mother of Mrs. Florene Johnson of this city.

Turner Cully Dies In Bloomington; Interment Here

Turner Homer Cully, a Jacksonville native, passed away suddenly at his home in Bloomington, Ill., late Friday evening. He had been ill for three weeks.

He was born Oct. 1, 1900, and was raised in the Jacksonville area. He was the son of the late Homer and Ruby Jordan Cully.

He is survived by his wife, the former Emma Wood of Jacksonville, and one daughter, Jacqueline Carr of Ft. St. Okla. Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. Franklin Knack of Oakland, Calif.; two aunts, Mrs. Eva Murray and Mrs. Effie Cully, both of Jacksonville.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Monday at the Beck Memorial Home in Bloomington, after which the remains will be brought to Jacksonville. Grave-side services will be held at 1 p.m. Monday in Diamond Grove cemetery with the Rev. C. H. Owens officiating.

Mrs. Sauer Of Winchester Dies; Funeral Monday

Mrs. Sophia Henrietta Sauer of Winchester passed away Saturday morning at Our Saviour's hospital where she had been a patient since Friday. She had been in failing health for some time.

She was born in Manito on Oct. 3, 1883, the daughter of Henry and Mary Graft Lussenhop. On Feb. 8, 1906, she married Andrew E. Sauer in Mason county. He preceded her in death in 1941.

The following children survive: Mrs. Violet Hobbs, Winchester; Elmer Sauer, Champaign; Urban Sauer of Winchester; Andrew L. Sauer of Winchester. She leaves two brothers, Fred Lussenhop, Louis Lussenhop, and one sister, Miss Kathryn Lussenhop, all of Manito.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Cunningham funeral home in Winchester. Rev. Father J. J. Sullivan will officiate. Interment will be in St. Mark's cemetery in Winchester.

The Rosary will be recited at the funeral home Sunday at 9 p.m.

Former Exeter Man, John Lawson, Dies In Arkansas
EXETER—Word was received here Friday by Mrs. Homer Grady of the death of her brother, John Lawson, Scott county native, who died at Little Rock, Arkansas.

Mr. Lawson, 57 years of age, lived alone and was found dead at his home. Authorities estimated the former Exeter man had been dead possibly three days.

Other than Mrs. Grady he is survived by a son living in Pennsylvania and a daughter in Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady left Saturday for Little Rock where services and interment will be made.

Greene County Sorority Meets At 'Five Steps'

ROODHOUSE—Mrs. W. A. Wilkinson and Miss Mabel Hopkins attended a dinner meeting of Chi Chapter Delta Kappa Gamma society held at the "Five Steps" in Jerseyville Friday night. Mrs. Wilkinson, county superintendent of Greene County, spoke on the I.E.A. survivors' benefit proposal for downstate teachers retirement system which may be submitted to the state legislature in 1959.

Vocal music and dancing were presented by pupils of Miss Elizabeth Moore of the Jerseyville schools.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Miss Mae Nichols of White Hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Cecil Manning is visiting in the home of her son, Judson Manning, Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Lloyd Smith attended a banquet given at the Jonathan Turner Junior high school, Jacksonville, Friday night in observance of American Education Week. She was the guest of Mrs. Naomi Coker, formerly of Roodhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Bohn, Seattle, Wash., are expected to arrive in Roodhouse for a visit next Friday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bohn.

William D. Fenton, Bloomington, a former Roodhouse resident, visited the Roodhouse Community high school Friday where local roadster Fenton presented the high school a pennant in honor of the football championship. Both of the Fenton children are graduates of the local school.

Von R. McClure Dies In Texas

Von R. McClure, a resident of the Berea community, passed away at his winter home in San Bonito, Texas, Saturday at 9:20 a.m. He had been there since October 1.

He was born in Princeton, Ind., April 8, 1887, and married to Pearl Robinson in 1918. She preceded him in death in 1957. He leaves one brother, Claude, Mishawaka, Ind., and several nieces and nephews. He was a retired farmer.

The body will be brought to the Williamson Funeral home and will arrive late Monday evening. Services will be held at the funeral home at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday. Rev. Robert Campbell officiating. Burial will be in Yatesville cemetery.

Friends may call anytime Tuesday. The family requests no flowers be sent.

In the meetings you attend, who leads recreation? When the subject is discussed at PTA, civic club and service organization, who is the leader? Who does the job for your church, school, club and community group in the field of recreation?

It's the people who know how, of course. A recreation workshop is being arranged to teach more people the skills of leading recreation. The workshop is to be held November 20 at Farm Bureau Building in Jacksonville.

Dale Hewitt, Scott County Farm Adviser, says the workshop is open to everyone interested in recreation.

Clothing Union Picks Corn For Ill Leader

It was corn husking the hard way last Saturday when a group of novices at the business—members of Local 199, Amalgamated Clothing Workers—turned out in full force to shuck 10 acres of corn on North Church street.

The clothing workers were joined by some friends and neighbors of Owen Nunes, 1046 N. Church street. He is president of the local and had been a patient at Passavant Memorial hospital for three weeks following surgery. He's convalescing at home now.

New Pike Firm To Lease Hogs

PITTSFIELD—A program under which meat-type breeding swine will be leased on a pay-later basis has been announced by Star-King Swine Leasing Program, a new enterprise owned jointly by M. D. King Milling Company of Pittsfield and Kenneth A. Stark, Nebo, Ill., livestock producer.

Livestock men can lease top-quality breeding stock and defer payment until market time. This reduces investment problems, and enables livestock men to market as many swine as they have equipment and time to handle, the company says.

Hogs are fully tested, and the program at present is limited to farmers in Morgan, Scott, Brown, Adams, Calhoun and Pike counties.

The United States has 969 accredited colleges and universities.

This Week.. at Dixon Springs

It's been a good year on the Station not only for pastures, but also for corn. Rainfall has been plentiful, and corn is turning out 80-bushel yields on the uplands.

Corn Fertilization
The other day we were asked how heavily we fertilize for corn. By most standards we would have to answer "not too heavily—about 200 pounds of 8-8-8 or 10-10-10 starter and about 60 pounds of nitrogen, side-dressed."

But the corn is followed by small grain and pasture seedlings, and it is before we make these seedlings that we satisfy the real hunger of the soil. The menu is limestone, rock phosphate and potash by the truckload. It has probably been five to seven years since the last feeding, but a soil test will serve as an indicator of appetite. The bulk fertilizers are disked into the seedbed with a quick-energy starter, such as 200 pounds of 4-16-16 drilled with the seed. Through feeding at the second table, the corn does well following several years of good pasture well seasoned with manure.

Easy Cattle Feeding
Cattle feeding can't be done much easier than we have done it for several years at the Station. We have a pelletizer, can be expected to increase gains and save feed on each pound of gain made. If you can get the pelletizing job done for under $6 a ton, you'll make money by pelletizing.

In General
Pope county had a successful deer season; hunters took more than 200 deer. Roundup was in full swing last week. Wheat seeding is being wound up. Previously unplowed pastures will be mowed to control sprouts. Winter feeding studies of both cattle and sheep will soon start. Sericea lespedeza seed will be harvested. Bird season is not far off.

Corn And Soybean Meal Rations Fine For Hogs
URBANA — Swine-feeding research at the University of Illinois has shown that corn-soybean meal rations for hogs work best for some Illinois growers.

Soybean meal works well on Illinois farms because it is easy to get and store in bulk, reports D. E. Walker, extension livestock specialist at the UI College of Agriculture. It fits well into grinding-mixing operations that can be completely automated.

Simple corn-soybean meal rations supplemented with vitamins, antibiotics and minerals put fast, economical gains on the hogs in the tests, Walker says.

Gains in this experiment were faster from the complete corn-soybean ration than from more complicated, more expensive rations containing meat and fish by-products, Walker says. Fast gains and lower protein cost at the same time considerably lowered the cost of gains.

LOANS ON GRAINS BEING PROCESSED
Quite a few applications to seal crops filled with 1958 corn in order to qualify for government loans are now coming into the local ASC office.

Corn that was raised within the allotment is eligible for loan at $1.38 per bushel this year. The support for non-compliance corn is 30c less, $1.08 per bushel.

Wallace T. Hembrough, office manager, said three sealers began their duties Thursday. They are Everett Reynolds, Albert Nienhiser and Charles H. Reid.

Producers having warehouse receipts for wheat or soybeans, or those having farm-stored wheat and soybeans, are urged to complete their applications for government loans soon. Applications for loans on either grain in either position will be accepted up to Jan. 15. Purchase agreements will be accepted up to Jan. 31.

PLAN 4-H INTEREST MEETING IN ARCADIA
A meeting to determine how much interest there is in forming a 4-H agriculture club in the Arcadia neighborhood has been set for Monday, Nov. 24. It will be held in the Arcadia Community building at 7:30 p.m., announces Boy Hayward, Jr., assistant farm adviser.

All interested parents and all prospective members are invited to attend.

Two prospective leaders for the new club are Ralph Ginder and Byron McGinnis, Hayward said. But he emphasized "we'll need all the adult help we can get. I hope we can organize the club and elect officers that night."

A University of Illinois extension livestock specialist says not to implant more than 24 milligrams of stilbestrol in calves or more than 36 milligrams in older cattle. He also suggests implanting steers before the winter feeding program begins.

4-H Club Congress Delegates

ELEANOR PETERSON

Two Cass county 4-H members will be Illinois delegates to the 4-H Club Congress to be held at the Conrad Hilton hotel in Chicago Nov. 30 through Dec. 4. More than 1300 state, sectional and national winners will be in attendance, representing all 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico. They will be joined by young people from Canada and more than 20 other countries.

lege, Berea, Ky. She was a very active member of the Jolly Jokers 4-H club for 10 years and was a county and state outstanding member for seven years.

David Winkelmann is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winkelmann of Ashland and is a sophomore in the U.I. College of Agriculture. He has been active in 4-H work since he was 10 years old and specialized in the development of a purebred Duroc swine herd. He also participated in county and state public speaking and demonstration contests.

Voting At 4 Precincts In Corn Referendum

Voting places for the Nov. 25 corn referendum have been established in four Morgan county centers: Chapin, Alexander, Franklin and Jacksonville. Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Townships 15-12, 16-11, 16-12, and 16-13 will vote at the American Legion Hall in Chapin, Illinois, with the following referendum committee in charge: Floyd Goodpasture, Miller Obert and Clarence B. Hamilton.

Townships 15-10-11, 14-10, 14-11, 15-10, 15-11, and 16-10 will vote at the Jacksonville S. S. C. Office, 308 East State Street. The committee will be George F. Fox, William H. Sorrell and Paul E. Thies.

Townships 15-8, 15-9, 16-8, and 16-9 will vote at the Alexander Elevator in Alexander. The committee will be Harold E. Cockin, Edgar E. Robinson, Jr., and Marvin Lee Martin. Townships 15-8, 15-9, 14-8, and 14-9 will vote at the high school in Franklin. The committee will be Arthur Mayberry, Arthur K. Zachary, and Charles Crow.

Farmers have their choice in voting for Program No. 1 or Program No. 2. An eligible voter is anyone who has grown any corn, or has an interest in any corn grown on their farm, or has an allotment, or was in the acreage reserve.

An eligible voter must cast his ballot in the County in which his farm is located. Voters may either vote at the polling place designated for the community in which they reside or vote at the polling place designated for the community in which their farm is located.

1890 Farm Record Book Tells Interesting Changes
BY ARTHUR THATCHER
JERSEYVILLE — The keeping of farm accounts is not a comparatively modern procedure as some would be led to believe, for back in 1890, Jersey county farmers were keeping account books in as much, if not more, detail than is being done today.

One of such farmer's account books was found this week by Claude Davis of Jerseyville at the old Nevius farm northeast of Jerseyville. The book was formerly owned and kept by Chris Nevius, once owner of the farm, and interesting facts can be obtained relative to farm prices at that time.

An interesting notation appears under date of Dec. 21, 1891, when Nevius sold to D. Sunderland, a livestock buyer, 25 hogs for $225.05. The total weight of the porkers was 6,430 pounds and they brought three and one-half cents per pound.

The price for wheat was proportionately low, for notations record sales of wheat in September, 1890, to W. H. Coulthard & Company at 40 cents per bushel. Sales at the same price were made to Duffields.

In 1891, wheat in August was sold for as much as 53 cents per bushel to the Jerseyville firm of E. Cockin and Company. Later the same year sales were made in December to the same firm for prices as low as 33 and 35 cents per bushel.

Sales were made during 1890 of clover hay at prices from $6 to $8.90 per ton and timothy was sold from $10 to $12.10 per ton. Of interest to horticulturists are notations regarding fruit sold

Horticulturists Of State Plan Annual Meeting

Harold J. Hartley of Carbonale, secretary of the Illinois Fruit Council, has announced the program for the 103rd annual convention of the Illinois State Horticulture and the ninth annual meeting of the Council to be held Nov. 24-25 at the Abraham Lincoln Hotel in Springfield.

Discussions during the two days will center around new varieties, modern cultural techniques, disease control, fertilization, irrigation, dwarf apples, fruit marketing and rodent control.

The 1958 Fruit Queen will be chosen in the ballroom Monday evening and she will be crowned by Gov. William G. Stratton.

New officers will be elected Tuesday morning.

ALLAN ANDERSON WINS CHICAGO TRIP

Allan Anderson, 15, of Chapin will be in Chicago for three days this week as the guest of the Illinois Farm Electrical Council. The free educational trip stems from his achievements in 4-H farm electricity projects.

He is a member of the Victory 4-H club, led by Warren Lakamp and Martin Burrus, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Anderson.

Headquarters for the stay will be at the Hamilton hotel. Trips are scheduled to electrical generating and distributing plants in Chicago, museums, the Board of Trade, airports and to a performance of the play, "My Fair Lady."

Other peaches listed were Heath Cling, Old Mission, Hales Early, Ward's Choice and Alexandra.

HELP FAMILY OF LATE CORDELL CAPPS

The first part of last week a large group of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of the late Cordell M. Capps, Jacksonville route five, to pick corn. Mr. Capps was found dead in a cornfield Oct. 21 after suffering a coronary attack. Shown above are Harry G. Driver, H. J. Hembrough, Virgil Mumtani, R. F. Strubbe, B. Beddingfield, Roy E. Smith, Lester Barfield, John White, Kenneth Robson, Amos Western, Paul Hembrough, Arthur W. Crawley, Arthur W. ## First CROP Corn Given By Adams County Farmers

The first earload of corn from this year's CROP drive was shipped Wednesday, Nov. 12, from Adams county. Farmers donating corn from their cribs loaded it into a car at Golden ready for shipment to the Staley Manufacturing Company at Decatur for conversion into corn oil.

The oil will be used overseas in such countries as Jordan, Greece, India and Korea by representatives of U.S. churches to help relieve hunger. This is the first of many loads of corn and other farm products which will be shipped in the next few weeks from counties engaging in CROP drives in Illinois.

The annual CROP campaign in Morgan county will be held during Thanksgiving week. The goal is $2,750, "corn or cash."

The local committee will make final plans for the solicitation at a meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 20, at Central Christian church.

The officers are Roy Smith, Woodson, chairman; Robert Kircher, Concord, vice chairman; Mrs. Hobart Riggs, Jacksonville, secretary; and Gilbert Todd, Jacksonville, treasurer.

Illinois Farmers Outlook Letter

CORN PRICE PROPS—WHICH WILL BE BEST?

This is apparently the last year for "two-level" price support programs for corn. Farmers will vote on November 25 to determine which of two single-level programs will go into effect beginning next year. The programs will be designated No. 1 and No. 2 on the ballot.

Program No. 1 would eliminate acreage allotments and would support prices of all 1959 corn at about $1.12 to $1.15. Price support in later years would probably not fall below about $1.10.

Program No. 2 would provide price support at about $1.24 to $1.27 for 1959 and later crops. But supports would be available only to farmers who comply with allotments. The national acreage allotment would be about 15 percent smaller than in 1958. Individual farm allotments may be reduced less or more than 15 percent. If surplus stocks continue to increase, the law provides that allotments be reduced still further in future years.

Which of the two programs would be best for a farmer? That may depend upon his individual circumstances. Some farmers may benefit more from one program, while others would gain more from the other. In my opinion neither program will solve many farmers' income problems.

There seems to be little reason to continue with the present acreage allotment program for corn. The basic purpose of the allotments was to limit feed and livestock production. But corn provides only one-fourth of the feed consumed by livestock, and only about 10 percent of all corn is grown in compliance with allotments. Most of the land kept out of corn by allotments produces some other feed. At least 97 percent of all feed produced is grown outside of corn acreage allotments.

Price supports for corn were kept too high for too long. They caused excessive stocks to accumulate. The law enacted in 1948 provides that, as stocks increase, both acreage allotments and price support levels must be reduced.

If the allotment program is continued in 1959, allotments will be so small and price support so low that few farmers will comply. Thus, there will probably be essentially no real price support for corn, since the USDA has said that "it is not planned to continue supports on corn not in compliance with acreage allotments."

Support for other feed grains. If Program No. 1 is approved (allotments voted out), price support for sorghum, grain, oats and barley will be required by law. The support levels for these grains must be in "fair" relationship to the support level for corn.

If Program No. 2 is approved (allotments continued), price support for the other feed grains will be entirely at the option of the Secretary, as at the present time. The 1958 crops of sorghum grain, oats and barley are being supported at 70 percent of parity, with no acreage allotments.

In order to be assured of equal treatment with producers of other feed grains—that is, price support without acreage allotments—corn growers apparently will have to approve Program No. 1.

U.I. To Enter Stock In Chicago Exposition

URBANA—University of Illinois entries in the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago Nov. 28 through Dec. 6 will include 12 steers, two market barrows and several lambs and fleeces.

In the sheep show, the university is furnishing eight lambs that have been on special feeding programs for the feeding portion of the American Society of Animal Production's 50th anniversary exhibit. Four of the lambs have been on a typical 1958 ration, while the other four have been fed 1958 rations.

Other sheep on show will be one pen of Rambouillet ram lambs and one pen of Rambouillet ewe lambs. In addition, the university is furnishing one Shropshire ewe lamb and one Hampshire ewe lamb to go into the lamb pool from which will be picked the animals to be used in the intercollegiate judging contest.

Fleeces for purebred judging will include one Hampshire ewe fleece, two Rambouillet ewe fleeces, one each of Shropshire ram and ewe fleeces and two Southdown ewe fleeces. Two fleeces will also be entered in the market wool competition.

Two Hampshire barrows have been entered in the swine show, one of them in the 190-210 pound class and the other in the 211-215 pound class. These two animals will be judged both on hoof and in the carcass.

Of the 12 steers in the beef cattle show, two will be entered in the carcass contest. Groups of three steers will be entered from each of the three major beef breeds in the pen-of-three contest.

Steers to be entered include two summer yearlings and one junior yearling in the Angus breed; one senior calf, two summer yearlings and one junior yearling in the Hereford breed; and one senior calf and two summer yearlings in the Shorthorn breed.

Charles W. Nicholson, chairman of the local committee on arrangements, said the meeting would be one of 6,000 to be held throughout the United States and Canada.

The Jacksonville Kiwanis club will join in the observance of the 4th annual National Farm-City Week. Some 40 farmers from all sections of the county will be guests of Kiwanis members at the regular luncheon to be held Thursday at the Dunlap hotel.

Charles W. Nicholson, chairman of the local committee on arrangements, said the meeting would be one of 6,000 to be held throughout the United States and Canada.

W. Hannah, associate dean of students and professor of law of the U. I. College of Agriculture, Dean Hannah is well known throughout the state for his many contributions in the field of farm law and he has recently returned from an extensive tour of India. In his address here Thursday he will discuss the status of agriculture in that country.

"The purposes of Farm-City Week," Nicholson said, "is to bring about better understanding between rural and urban people, to increase the knowledge and appreciation of each for the American way of life, and to recognize that Thanksgiving Day symbolizes America's awareness of, and gratefulness for, the bounty of nature and the strength of her man-made institutions."

The local committee will also work throughout the week in cooperation with the WLDL radio program of Farm Adviser George Trull and with the Jacksonville Ministerial association, Nicholson said.

Shorn lambs gained about 50 per cent faster than unshorn lambs at the University of Illinois sheep farm this past summer.

Illinois farmers with well-managed farm sheep flocks and lamb-raising programs have a good chance to make profits in the next few years.

Labor Rides High

Organized Labor looks ahead to 1959 with confidence that it may achieve more than a few of its major objectives.

Its hopes are based, of course, on the election returns which not only swept in an avalanche of Democratic candidates but brought the defeat of proposed right-to-work laws in five of the six states where it was up for decision.

Already the AFL-CIO leadership has announced its intention to seek certain labor-management reforms and to effect changes in the basic Taft-Hartley labor law.

It would like especially to knock out that provision which permits the states to adopt right-to-work laws, whose effect is to bar the union shop in labor contracts. With Kansas the newest addition, 19 states now have such laws.

Labor also hopes to increase minimum wages and unemployment benefits, and to win certain broader objectives in hospital-medical coverage, housing, public works loans as a hedge against recession, and civil rights.

Because of the seemingly more liberal complexion of the new Congress convening in January, there is a wide assumption in some quarters that Labor may indeed win its ambitious goals.

Certainly the possibility exists as it has not since 1947 and the original adoption of Taft-Hartley. But still there is reason for caution in appraising Labor's prospects in Washington.

It should be remembered, for one thing, that after the 1948 results, Labor could look forward to a Congress with more than 260 Democrats in the House and a fair majority in the Senate, plus a president, Harry S. Truman, who was flatly pledged to seek the full repeal of Taft-Hartley.

Yet the net outcome was nothing at all. The Senate, with its slimmer margin of Democratic power, actually approved a bill pushed by the late Senator Taft himself, incorporating many Taft-Hartley changes. But the heavily Democratic House saw a combination of GOP and Democratic conservatives bury the whole business.

This may not happen again. Democratic margins are wider today in both houses. Yet it must not be forgotten that conservatives in both parties still hold positions of strength in key congressional committees, and that in coalition they may either block passage of a bill or prevent the overriding of a presidential veto, should that occur.

Labor is riding high. But obviously it would be unwise for it to take too much anticipatory pleasure from its new ascendancy. A good many barriers still stand in its path.

Arab Refugees

(From The Chicago Daily News)

In the 10 years since the Israeli-Arab war, United Nations members have contributed $300 million for the care of the 950,000 refugees from Israel. The United States has given two thirds of this. The agency which administers the fund is due to expire next June.

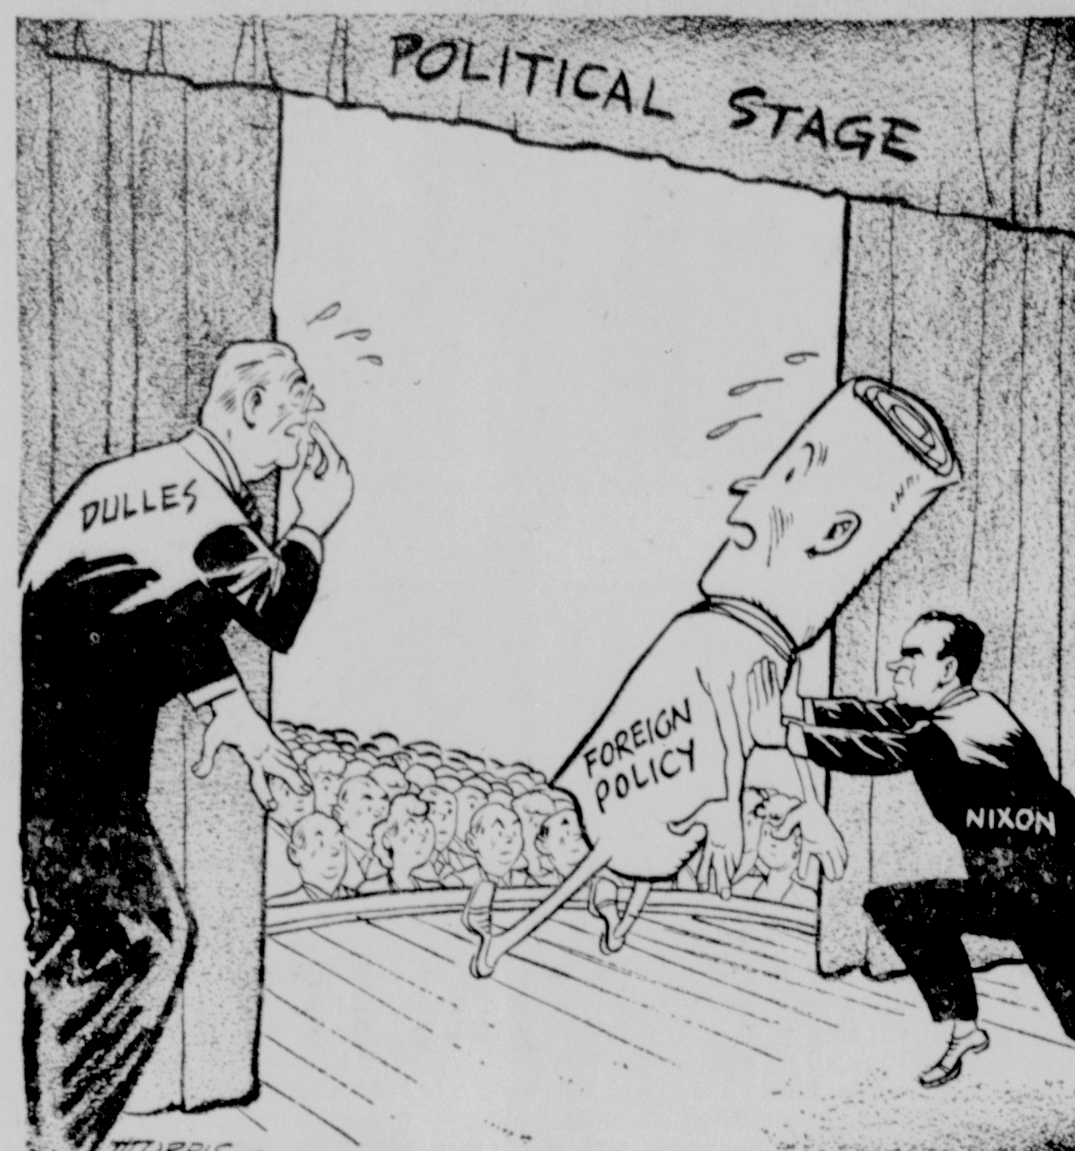

George M. Harrison, U.S. representative on the U.N. special committee, points out that when the relief mandate was extended in 1954, this country concurred because large-scale resettlement projects were being planned. In view of the failure of these, Mr. Harrison was critical of proposals merely to continue the subsistence doles without progress toward permanent solutions.

The impasse is almost complete. Israel refuses to readmit the refugees, the Arab states refuse to move them from the miserable camps to homesteads or collective farms.

The fact that permits these stubborn attitudes is the assumption of the burden of other nations. We cannot believe that the states directly responsible would defy both the code of humanity and the force of world opinion if they were told flatly that they must shoulder the obligation that they alone created.

Bennett

BY JERRY BENNETT
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA) — It turns out that the real "bodacious" campaigner in President Eisenhower's cabinet was not Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, but Secretary of Interior Fred A. Seaton.

"Bodacious" is a White House word for bold and audacious.

Anyway, here is the record of Secretary Seaton in going to the aid of his party since Aug. 15.

He made 161 public appearances in 23 states. The appearances included 51 speeches, 52 press conferences, 24 radio and press interviews, other than press conferences, and 34 meetings or receptions. He was in Washington about half the time, on the road the other half. On his travels, he logged 30,000 miles.

In this process he wore out four aides, who took turns trying to keep up with him. They were Hirsch Schooley, Ted Stevens, George Abbott and Phil Mullen.

All this was just a warm-up for what Secretary Seaton has ahead of him. He left for Alaska the Friday after election, and he'll make 18 more talks there in the two weeks before the new state holds its election on Nov. 25.

Those streaks he serves at Ike's dinner are the talk of the town's butchers and restaurant men. For

The diplomat tossed the party to honor a group of traveling French actors and allowed Prisca to invite her friends to see romantic star Gerard Philipe.

But what pleased the girls most was that Philipe granted them more than just a brief look. After awhile he slipped away from the crowd and invited them to join him for dessert and coffee in another room.

Actually, most of the other guests were too busy going back to the buffet for second helpings to miss the star. They were mainly interested in Oeufs-Interalle, a fancy egg and mushrooms concoction and a rich sponge cake which was flavored with Cointreau liqueur.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rock 'em and sock 'em.

That may be the new Communist technique, just as it was Joseph Stalin's, to create crisis after crisis to keep the West jittery, gain a little yardage where the West could be forced into concessions, and make propaganda.

Example: What's happened at Quemoy and now at Berlin.

Stalin knew the method well, as he showed with the pressure on Greece, Turkey, Iran, at Berlin, in Korea. It was dropped for a while after his death.

A few months ago — after the Iraq revolution the Eisenhower administration itself jittered American allies by sending troops into Lebanon avowedly to save the government there.

So long as they remained, there was a chance of a Middle East shooting war that could become big war with Russia. The Eisenhower administration was anxious to withdraw the troops as soon as gracefully possible.

Before this could be done — and while Middle East tension continued — Russian Premier Khrushchev visited Peking. Then came the Communist-made crisis. The Red Chinese began shelling Chiang Kai-shek's troops on the island of Quemoy.

Again jitters for American allies. The United States, under this Red pressure, wouldn't tell Chiang to pull his troops back to Formosa, although Quemoy itself was unnecessary for Formosa's defense.

Not to yield under such pressure, said the administration, was a matter of principle. Nevertheless, the Reds gained some psychological yardage at least from their efforts.

Secretary of State Dulles flew to Formosa, conferred with Chiang, flew back.

After he left came the disclosure that Chiang — who had kept up the spirits of Chinese Nationalists and non-Communist Chinese overseas with threats of recapturing the China mainland — had finally given up any such intention.

The Quemoy problem still is not settled but now that the tension has died down a bit, Khrushchev has struck another firecracker under the West, created new tension in another place, this time in Berlin.

Khrushchev jittered the Allies with his call for an end to the occupation of Berlin. The Big Three Western allies have occupied West Berlin since the end of World War II. The Russian-backed East German Communists have East Berlin.

Berlin is 110 miles within East Germany. Now Khrushchev says Russians, Americans, British, French should all clear out. This would leave all Berlin to the Communists. The West says no.

The West doesn't at this minute know what to expect next but does fear that tension over the occupation of Berlin might in the end lead to shooting.

The Russians should be able to turn the heat on and off at Berlin for months or years, just as they please.

They'll hardly stop there. They can think of other places, other crises. The world may be entering a nerve-jangling period, with Russia doing the jangling at will.

Men Will Help Out If

They Feel They're Wanted

BY MARIE DAERR

Put the blame on Mame—and Josephine—and Sarah. If the men won't stir from their easy chairs and their TV sets and let themselves to a golden-age club meeting.

Three golden-age club leaders—women, at that—gave me this answer to a recent column on the subject of men's reluctance to join in the after-60 social groups.

"All of their lives, women are active in club work," these leaders told me. "They are running the show in sororities."

"They are in PTA's, sewing clubs and book-review and study groups. They're so used to all this that, when they get to the golden-age club stage, they just continue to 'take over.'"

"Frankly, they scare the men, who may have belonged to a luncheon club or two in their working days, but never did much more than sit back and listen to the speaker."

"So when it comes to a retirement group, the men don't step forward—they just stay home."

Clubs, these women agreed, ought to do a canvassing job for members, just as churches do. And, when once they can lure a man away from his hearth, they'd better give him plenty of chances to enter into things.

"Give the men an opportunity, and they enjoy doing chores," one woman said. "We discovered that at our golden-age hobby shop. The men did the hard work of the show, and really enjoyed it."

"They put up displays, lugged quilts and other cumbersome entries around and organized car pools for the benefit of people who couldn't get to the show by public transportation."

If a club or a center has the space and the money, it can attract male membership by providing billiard tables and woodworking equipment, it was suggested.

Surveys have shown that many clubs have four women to one man, these leaders pointed out. That's something that ought to be corrected. Well, ladies, how about it?

In Hollywood

By ROB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—TV Topics: Lucille Ball makes her first departure from Lucy Ricardo in more than five years when she plays "K.O. Kitty" Monday night. But she doesn't plan to make it a habit.

On Desilu Playhouse she'll be a girl who inherits a boxer (Aldo Ray) from an uncle. She describes the role thusly: "I play Lucy with the stops out; this is Lucy with the stops in."

Most of Lucille's film career was devoted to musicals and dramas. I asked her if she would be seeking more departures from Lucy. "Perhaps if I can find good scripts," she said. "But I'm not eager to I like playing Lucy."

Both the Eddie Fisher and George Gobel shows are undergoing a change of producers, further evidence that the Tuesday nights are in trouble. Despite an impressive lineup of guest stars, both shows have had disappointing ratings. It's a shame. I'd hate to see Tuesday night given over entirely to the cowpokes.

When will the networks abandon the crazy competition for Sunday night? This week Mervyn, Steve Allen and Ed Sullivan all had superior shows. It drove the set-switchers wild trying to avoid missing Jim Garner, Harry Belafonte and the Friars' roast of Sullivan.

PLAQUES APLENTY
NEW YORK (AP)—The tablet tradition is growing on Broadway. Last year a plaque was put up to mark the birthplace of playwright Eugene O'Neill. Now two more plaques have been installed on a nearby building in honor of the Globe, one of the White Way's most noted theaters.

The showplace, which has since become the Lunt-Fontanne, was erected in 1910. Among the players there were Sarah Bernhardt, the Astaires, Vernon Castle, W. missing Jim Garner, Harry Belafonte and the Friars' roast of Sullivan.

Matter of FACT

Will Hutchins, the Sugarfoot lad, is the latest of the gun-slingers to stage a revolt. He blasted his employers the other day with a tirade that onlookers said was a pip. Will Garner be next?

Let's it ironic that the two most widely acclaimed shows of the new season were turned in by a couple of old pros — Fred Astaire and Bing Crosby? They have been the highlights thus far of an otherwise lackluster season.

If Twentieth Century can maintain the caliber of its Knute Rockne show, it should be a fascinating series. The 30-year-old footage of the Notre Dame grid great held more interest than most of the up-to-date shows this week.

Mrs. John G. Crocks

Dorothy Emmons, Graduate Of Franklin High, Bride

VIRIDEN — A former Morgan county resident, Miss Dorothy Emmons of Viriden and John G. Crocks of Litchfield, were united in marriage Saturday, Nov. 1, at the Church of Nazarene here.

Rev. J. W. Peters performed the double ring ceremony in which the bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Ernest Walls, Jr. of Carlinville.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Reva Emmons of Viriden and the late Harry Emmons. The family formerly lived in the Franklin community. The groom is the son of Mrs. Temperance Crocks of Litchfield and the late P. M. Crocks.

The former Miss Emmons wore white lace and net over taffeta made with very full skirt, conventional length. A crown head-dress of seedpearls held her shoulder-length veil and she carried red roses with a white Bible. Her pearl earrings were a gift of her bridegroom.

Miss Margie Emmons attended her sister and Glenn Crocks served his brother as best man. Ushers were John Etter of Viriden and Robert Grooms of Girard.

The bride's attendant wore rose sheer crepe and net over taffeta and white carnations in a corsage. The bride's mother wore blue and the groom's mother a darker shade. Both wore carnation corsages.

A reception at the American Legion home followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Crocks are making their home at 709 East Jackson street in Viriden.

Mrs. Crocks graduated in 1955 from Franklin high school. She is employed by the Lane Insurance Agency at Viriden. The groom graduated the same year from Litchfield high school and is employed by Allis Chalmers.

Rachel Circle Plans Sale This Month

Rachel Circle of "Centenary church met Wednesday, Nov. 12, at the home of Mrs. Carl Martin, 714 West Douglas.

The meeting was opened by the leader, Mrs. Nettie Brockhouse, who gave the devotion reading from the Book of Psalms. Roll call was answered by 12 members and two guests.

The treasurer, Mrs. Cecil Patterson, gave a report on the California hamburger supper which was held recently. Final plans were also made for the bazaar and luncheon to be held Nov. 20 at the church.

The circle is also planning a rummage sale Nov. 29. The program was given by Mrs. C. A. Sullivan.

The meeting closed with prayer. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Martin assisted by Mrs. Earl Hudson.

If macaroons are too soft to crush (when you want to crumble them to use in such a dessert as Biscuit Torte), toast them in a hot oven, then cool, and you'll be able to crumb them.

Evalée Turner

The Reverend and Mrs. Everett M. Turner, east of the city, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Evalée, to William B. Sallie, son of Dr. and Mrs. T. R. Cooper, 127 City Place.

The bride-elect attended local schools and is employed at Hamilton's in Jacksonville. The prospective bridegroom is a senior at Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Indiana.

No date has been set for the wedding.

State Regent Of DAR Will Speak Nov. 18

Mrs. Len Young Smith of Winnetka, Illinois, State Regent of the Daughters of American Revolution, will speak at the luncheon meeting Tuesday, Nov. 18, of the Rev. James Caldwell Chapter in Jacksonville. Other DAR chapters in fifth division have been invited to the meeting opening with luncheon at Hotel Dunlap at 1 o'clock.

MRS. LEN Y. SMITH

Hostesses Tuesday will be past regents of the local chapter, Mrs. William Barr Brown and Mrs. Paul S. Black, chairmen.

The speaker is a candidate for Registrar General in the national society. She has been a member of Fort Dearborn chapter of DAR at Evanston since 1926 and active in local, state and national organizations.

Local members may take guests to the meeting. Miss Olive Burnett is receiving reservations through today, Nov. 16, at Hotel Dunlap. Mrs. Smith will be heard on WLDS at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 18, following the meeting at the Hotel. She will be interviewed by Mr. Fairburn over the air.

Hebron Church Holds Family Night Program

"Where Our Missionaries Work" was the subject of an address by Mrs. Avaliee S. McCarthy of Jacksonville at the family night program of the Hebron church Nov. 9.

Mrs. McCarthy told of conditions in the countries across southern Asia. The religious beliefs, methods of earning a living, religious festivals and everyday ways of life were discussed by the speaker.

Colored pictures of Japan, Philippines, Hong Kong, Thailand, India, Pakistan, Turkey and the Holy Land were shown.

Plan Fall Festival Nov. 22

Every year at harvest time women of Congregational church are busy with plans for the church's Fall Festival to be held this year Saturday, November 22. The general co-chairmen, Mrs. Harry Story and Mrs. S. N. Osborne, are seen in the lower accompanying picture checking on committees by phone.

The top view shows handicraft booth chairmen, Mrs. Robert Spink, left, Mrs. Robert Caldwell, center, and Mrs. F. O. Elliott, committee member and also co-chairman for luncheon table decorations, inspecting with the Caldwell children, Robbie and Shelly, some of the many decorative articles to be sold at the bazaar.

Tickets for the luncheon, to be served at 11:30 a.m. 12:15 and 1 p.m. are being sold by members. A tradition with the festival is the sale of home-made mince meat concocted from an old and treasured recipe. Orders should be placed in advance with Miss Nelle Doying.

Many booths will offer unusual gift items, many foreign imports and unusual merchandise will be available.

The handicraft booth will have a wide variety of holiday offerings for decorating the home.

Committees, other than listed above are: luncheon, Mrs. Albyn Wolfe and Mrs. Edward Alexander.

Dining room, Mrs. W. L. Fox and Mrs. Kenneth Chenoweth; table decorations, Mrs. Chester Hemphill and Mrs. Elliott.

Mince meat, Mrs. Frank Robinson, Mrs. Frederick Engelbach, Mrs. Lester Abbott, Mrs. E. A. Lindburg, Miss Nelle Doying. Baked goods, Mrs. Myron Mills and Mrs. John Clegg; candy, Mrs. Richard Thompson, Miss Louise Robinson, Mrs. Frank Sayre.

Arcadia Women Exceed Quota In United Fund

On Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 12, the Arcadia Woman's Club met at the Arcadia Hall, Mrs. Harold McGinnis, president, presided. The meeting opened with the pledge to the flag. The music chairman, Mrs. Fred Standley, accompanied the group in singing "Faith of Our Fathers."

Roll call was answered by 22 members. Guests present were Mrs. Elmer Holt, Mrs. Alpha DeGroot and several children.

The devotion was given by Mrs. Lark Buck. The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Irland Thompson and the treasurer's by Mrs. Andrew Wheeler.

A memorial service for Mrs. Josephine Obermeyer was conducted by Mrs. Wilson Henderson, Mrs. Arthur Kershaw and Mrs. Jimmie Jones.

The collect was repeated. The president reported on the county meeting held last month.

Two members attended the Federation Regional meeting last month in Springfield. Mrs. McGinnis and the district publicity chairman, Mrs. Dinwiddie, reported.

The president announced the club had collected over the quota set for the Arcadia area in the United Fund Drive. Those helping with the drive were the president, Mrs. McGinnis; as chairman, Mrs. Loren Burrus, Mrs. Jimmie Jones, Mrs. Lark Buck, Mrs. Paul Mason, Mrs. Robert Daniel, Mrs. Oren Mallicoat and Mrs. J. E. Dinwiddie.

The program was given by Mrs. Oren Mallicoat reading "Landing of the Pilgrims." Mrs. Mallicoat conducted a contest.

The hostess, Mrs. William S. Jones, served a dessert of pumpkin chiffon squares, mints, nut meats and coffee, during the social hour.

The next meeting of the club will be the Christmas dinner and gift exchange. Mrs. Virgil Parry will be the hostess at the Arcadia Hall on Wednesday, Dec. 10. The dinner is to be at 12:30, meeting will follow.

Children who take school lunches will appreciate a fresh lunch container each day. To chase stale food odors, give the containers a hot suding each evening. This cuts down on carry-over food odors which make future meals unpleasant.

Plan Golden Wedding Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fernandes

The fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fernandes of Jacksonville who have spent their entire married life residing in the same block on North Fayette street the past half-century will be marked next Sunday. Their present address is 1068 where they will welcome friends and relatives during open house from two to five Sunday afternoon, Nov. 23rd.

Mr. Fernandes is retired after 28 years employment at MacMurray College. He and the former Sanie Souza were married in this city Nov. 19, 1908. They are the parents of five children, all of whom will be present for the celebration. The children are Mrs. S. J. Blackman, Jacksonville; Wilbur Fernandes, Peoria; Mrs. Charles McGrew, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Mrs. Thomas Burdge, Pekin and Doris Fernandes of Peoria. A niece, Mrs. James Orris, the former Sondra Fernandes, was raised in the home. There are four grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Greenfield City Council Studies Lighting Proposal

GREENFIELD—Supt. Ellerman met with the city council and Mayor George Rives, at the regular city council meeting Thursday night and presented a map designating the locations of the 18 proposed vapor lights.

These locations are at the four corners of the square; four sides of the north city park; one half block north of northeast corner and one half block south of the southeast corner (Presbyterian Church); one-half block east at American Legion Home and one block east of the southeast corner of square at high school; east and west side of U.S. Highway No. 67; Dec. 4, and to discuss this further with business houses to see if the increased illumination would warrant the cost.

Mayor Rives reported that the Division of Highways, State of Illinois, had granted permission that the Resolution of Maintenance of Arterial Streets by Municipality (City of Greenfield) under the Motor Fuel Tax Law, that the two streets be added: Arterial Street No. 12, Bluff from Pine to Cedar, and No. 13, Pine from Prairie to Bluff. The date of June 1, 1959, has been set for the start of asphaltting and rocking all the city streets.

Mayor Rives, Chief of Police Verne Stringer and city council members want to express their thanks to the children of our community for their perfect conduct during Halloween and that not one complaint was registered of any Halloween prank. They want to express thanks to the parents, school authorities and Lions Club for the promoting of the annual Lions Club Halloween Parade, which the city authorities feel has brought about this good conduct of the children.

She could still see nothing. She rapped hopelessly on windows and waited for a dismal minute. She knew the house was empty. She thought: I wonder if I could get inside here. The Ransomes wouldn't mind. I wouldn't bother anything. I wouldn't hurt anything. It would give me some place to sleep, at least.

She reached up and pushed on the window in front of her. The clasp was loose, and it rattled under her touch, but the window did not open. She went back to the second window, then to the first; they all rattled; none of them gave way. She thought: It wouldn't be too hard to break in. I could fix the clasp tomorrow, when it was daylight. They wouldn't mind me doing that, would they?

She went round a packing case to the third window. It was on the back of the cottage, in the most protected location. If one had to be forced open, this was the one which would do the least harm.

The rattle in this one seemed to be the loosest, the most noticeable. She banged on it with her fists, and heard the clasp grating and scraping. There was no way to hold it, nothing to pull it by or shake it with. She pounded harder. The frame squeaked painfully, the rotten wood grating on itself, while the rain poured down her back; and then suddenly the window sagged open before her.

She climbed up onto the packing case, then to the sill, twisted around, and dropped feet first inside. She fell onto something soft: the bed was under the window.

She felt her way into the bathroom. There was another light switch—another temptation. How simple it would be. She groped past it, pretending it wasn't there.

She felt the mirrored surface of the medicine chest on a level with her head, a guidepost sticking out of the wall toward her, and then her waist touched the porcelain edge of the basin. Her hands walked like blind bugs around the rim of it, looking for the taps. She turned on a thin stream of water and held her hands under it, rubbing them together without soap, hoping they were getting clean. She liked to watch the dirt come off; that was the only way she could be sure that her hands were dirty when she started and clean when she finished. Now when she thought they were clean she dried them on her skirt.

She needed a hiding place. Her scattering thoughts refused to help her. Her mind was empty—flashes of color ran through it—disjointed words—pictures that meant nothing. She must pull herself together. This was the last effort. The very last.

The bathroom. Yes, of course. How simple. All bathroom doors had locks. She felt along the edge of this one; yes, the lock was there. She closed the door and tried it. It worked. She thought: Nobody could get in here without my knowing it. This is a safe place. This is the place to hide.

She had only a momentary impression of relaxing, of the rain tapping softly on the roof above her, of the bright colors in her empty mind fading and going farther away, of the darkness and the silence and the safety; and then she was asleep.

Waking up fully dressed gave her an odd feeling, as though this particular day—unlike the other days of her life—was busy and precious and important; it had to be grabbed and used up. There was no time to waste. She splashed water quickly on her hands and face, shook them dry, and went to look out the window. She remembered for the first time that her glasses were gone. The day was not quite as golden as she had thought, since she could not see it. Still, she could see enough of it—the blue and white sky, the trees, the sandy grass, that brilliant light shining so hard on everything that the whole world looked like it might burst.

The horrors of yesterday seemed impossible in the sunshine; and her mind, so overflowing with fear and the impulse of flight, had hardened during her sleep like a glass of jelly, so that she had now—for the moment, at least—the protection of a sort of immunity to her own thoughts. They were looked away where they could not get at her.

The refrigerator was full of a variety of things—cold fried chicken, half a loaf of bread, cheese, mayonnaise, mustard, bacon, a piece of leftover meat on a kitchen plate. She got out the bread and a stick of butter, and rummaged through drawers until she found a knife. She ate a piece of bread and butter ravenously, and looked for something to drink. There was no milk. She had never drunk coffee; and anyhow, she didn't know how to make coffee.

She wandered out into the living room. She put her hand on the knob of the front door, and turned it. The door opened under her pressure. It had been unlocked all night. She could simply have walked in, instead of climbing so laboriously through the window. She was not surprised. Everyone up and down the beach was careless about locking up the cottages. They said Mr. Weatherby had once gone off and left his unlocked all winter.

Mr. Weatherby.

She wondered instantly why she hadn't thought of him before. He was the ideal solution to all her problems. She would go to see him. He would give her breakfast. Maybe he'd even let her stay with him for a while.

Girl To Seek Viet Nam Tribe That Lacks Written Language

By GENE HANDSAKER
PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A slim, blue-eyed New England girl plans to ride muleback into mountainous South Viet Nam and find some tribe that has no written language.

There, a few miles from the Communist North, she'll spend 10 to 15 years making a phonetic translation of the New Testament and helping the natives establish a church.

"We feel that since the Lord seems to be leading us into it, He'll take care of us," says brunette Jean Donaldson, 26.

She and a still unselected girl companion will be sponsored by Wycliffe Bible Translators. This interdenominational group, with headquarters in nearby Glendale and 800 field workers around the world, has translated the New Testament into nearly 150 tribal languages.

In high school at Exeter, N.H., where she is still a member of the First Baptist church, Jean began thinking about missionary work.

In 1950-54 she was a staff sergeant in photography at Shaw Air Force Base, S.C. She prayed about her decision while earning a B.A. at Westmont College, Santa Barbara, Calif.

Miss Donaldson is studying Biblical languages at the non-denominational Fuller Theological Seminary before sailing next Jan. 17.

"I felt I'd like to go to a place which had no one to tell them of the Lord," she said. "There are Christian Missionary Alliance workers in Viet Nam but over 21 tribes without the Gospel."

Miss Donaldson and her partner will write native sounds in basic primers, in phonetic English.

"I imagine it will take 10 to 15 years before you get a strong church in one tribe," she said.

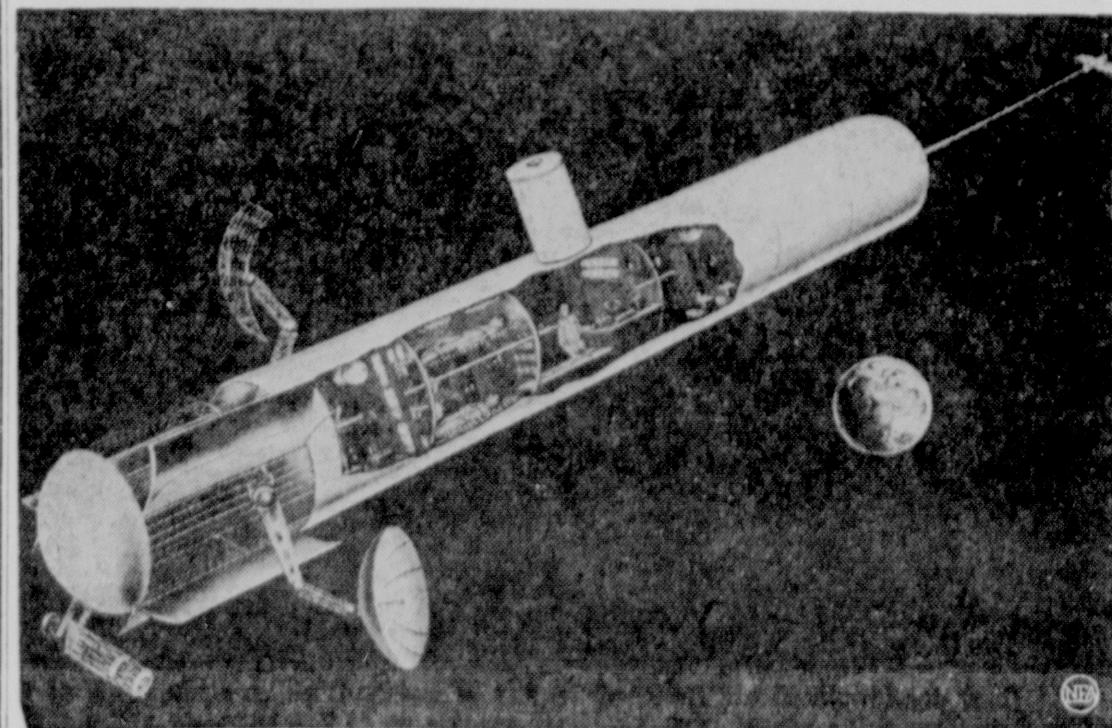

"When I finish with one, I plan to go on to another."

She said her mother, Mrs. Faith S. Donaldson, Exeter, N.H., is "very happy about it."

FIVE-MAN SPACE STATION—Development of million-pound-thrust rocket engines is bringing manned space flight—in vehicles such as this five-man space station—nearer to reality. Seven feet in diameter and 35 feet long, this satellite and its shielding might weigh as much as 65,000 pounds and would require a launching rocket developing about six million pounds of thrust. Orbiting at 22,300 miles altitude, the satellite could be used for astronomy, solar and ionosphere studies, a communications relay station or a weather-forecasting station. ## Murrayville Club Program Traces History In Music

The music chairman, Mrs. M. J. Benscoter, presented the program Wednesday afternoon at the first bi-monthly meeting of Murrayville Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. L. C. Collins.

The hostess led the fourteen members and one guest in the pledge to the flag in opening the meeting followed with the club collect led by Mrs. James Solomon. Roll call was answered with scripture. Mrs. Leon Gasper of Shipman was a guest at the meeting.

The president, Mrs. Charles Wilson, presided. Mrs. Russell Devore gave secretary report and Mrs. T. G. Beadles treasurer's report. Several committee reports were also heard at this time.

Mrs. Wilson had a number of federated contests explained in the hopes members will participate. She closed the business for the duration of the meeting with a poem, "The Greatest Gift."

The program chairman, Mrs. James E. Symons, presented Mrs. M. J. Benscoter, music chairman. Mrs. Benscoter's program, early history of the country followed the theme, "My Country 'Tis of Thee, Of Thee I Sing."

Combining piano selections, vocal numbers, poetry, prose and skits, Mrs. Benscoter skillfully wove in story and song the progress in America from the landing of the pilgrims to the present life span.

The music chairman presided at the piano and interspersed with poem and speech, "Faith of Our Fathers," by the group was followed with a sketch and the piano rendition of "O Come All Ye Faithful."

In costume Mrs. Charles Wilson and Mrs. James Solomon illustrated the days of the country's first president with a Minuet, "Yankee Doodle" dramatized the Spirit of 1776.

The lilting tempo of LaPaloma at the piano by Mrs. Benscoter delighted her audience and was followed with folk numbers designating the trend westward, "Oh Suzanna," "Old Dan Tucker" and "Irish Washerwoman."

As the nation settled more into unity the era denoting love and home was depicted with "I Love You Truly," sung by Mrs. Norman Marshall and the group joining for "Home Sweet Home." This was followed with hymns which Mrs. Benscoter first read the verse then played the music.

Grand opera was represented with a recording from the opera Madame Butterfly, sung by Mrs. Benscoter's daughter, Mrs. Mary Jane Paul, living in the country of Austria.

In closing the theme "My Country 'Tis of Thee" was repeated and illustrating songs of all the states the chairman sang and played all verses of "Illinois."

During the social hour the hostess served a luncheon course including chicken sandwiches with peanut salad, coconut dreen and date bars with coffee.

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday the next meeting of the club will be held one week early on Nov. 19 at the home of Mrs. James E. Symons in Jacksonville.

Congregationalists Pick Minister To Head Unusual Financial Setup

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — One day last week the Rev. Dr. Howard E. Spragg of Westfield, N.J., got a new job — and a dozen or so new titles to go with it. Dr. Spragg was elected head of the Treasury Department of the Congregational Christian Church boards, a financial setup which, at first glance, appears to be the most complicated yet devised by man.

As to titles, he is treasurer of the Board of Home Missions, the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers and the Corporation for the General Council.

He also is treasurer of the 10 boards and societies for which the Home Mission Board holds power of attorney and asset, including the endowment fund of the American College in Madras, India.

True to tradition, the Congregational boards went to a minister when it came time to pick a successor to the Rev. Dr. William F. Prazier, who retires Dec. 31 at 70. Most church treasurers are lay financiers.

"We've always had a minister as treasurer," says Dr. Spragg, "even though it's not required under the bylaws. A minister knows the life of the church from the inside and is not inclined to forget why these funds were given in the past."

"Most Christians try to separate the spiritual from the material things in their religious lives. I regard stewardship of these funds to be as spiritual as a Sunday service."

When he assumes the post Jan. 1, Dr. Spragg will ride herd on total assets of close to 100 million dollars, most of them invested in stocks, bonds and mortgages. Annual disbursements are more than 10 million dollars.

The treasurer of the Congregational boards occupies an odd position in the church's financial scheme. He's sort of an administrator and liaison man between experts who make recommendations and those who have the final say.

Assistant treasurers do most of the pick and shovel work. They are lay people, particularly well versed in some aspect of finance like stocks and bonds, mortgages or real estate appraisal.

The investment committees of the various funds, boards and corporations make the final decisions on investments. The treasurer generally is a member of each investment committee. Membership on many committees overlaps.

Dr. Spragg, 41, a native of Malden, Mass., is no stranger to finance. From 1949 through 1952, he handled a $300,000 annual budget as general secretary of Congregational Christian work in Puerto Rico. His last post was general secretary for administration for the Home Mission Board.

Chapin Firemen Plan Purchase Of New Equipment

CHAPIN—The annual pancake and sausage supper put on by the Chapin Volunteer Firemen netted $200. The amount was divided between the village fire department and the rural fire department to be used for maintenance and new equipment.

The rural department is planning to buy a new 2½" portable pump to draw water from farm ponds and reservoirs and also some new hose. The cost of these two items is estimated at $800.

The department is composed of 35 firemen, all volunteers, under the direction of Odell Woodward, chief.

Chapin Items
Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bailey have moved to Georgia to make their home. Mr. Bailey was an employee of the Farmers Elevator for the past few years.

Mrs. Herbert C. Breskou of East Lansing, Mich., is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Ellers. Beth Ann Rogie of Pine City, Minn., is also visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Ellers, for a few days.

Those who enjoyed two days of hunting at Forest, Ill., recently were Harry Lee Waters, Eugene Nienhiser, Byron Tiemann, Albert Schwagmeyer, Loran Brockhouse, Wayne Brockhouse, Tom Bracket, Laurence McDannald, Arthur W. Nergenah, Francis Meier and Reginald Nergenah. They bagged 35 birds.

Royal Neighbors Meet At Gym In Patterson

PATTERSON — The local Camp of Royal Neighbors held its regular meeting Wednesday evening in the school gym with Oracle Grace Brown. Twenty-three officers and members answered roll call. During the business session the charter was draped in memory of a deceased member, Mrs. Verna Doyle.

After the closing of the camp, the penny collection was held and the neighbors adjourned to the tables where refreshments of pumpkin pie, with whipped cream, coffee and pop corn were served by the committee. Mrs. Maxine Cumby and Mrs. Shirley Odwin. Mrs. Minnie Steelman, Mrs. Mildred Gihler, and Mrs. Lida Dawdy received birthday gifts. A prize, donated by Mildred Gihler, was awarded to Minnie Steelman. Mildred Wilkinson received the door prize, which was given by Maxine Cumby.

The regular meeting in December will be held earlier in the month than usual, to have time for another meeting for the annual Christmas party. Mrs. Bea Taylor and Mrs. Grace Brown will be the hostesses for the regular meeting.

RECREATION LEADERS TO MEET THURSDAY

A district 4-H "recreation workshop" will be held at Farm Bureau hall Thursday afternoon and evening. Adult leaders, junior leaders and recreation leaders from Scott, Case, Greene, Macoupin and Morgan counties will attend and all interested persons are invited.

There will be an afternoon training period on making inexpensive party favors. The evening session will be devoted to ideas concerning club recreation periods, achievement programs, federation meetings, rallies, club meetings at home and home and family fun.

The U.S. Department of the Interior was established in 1849.

With The Girl Scouts

A splendid council meeting of all registered adults in the Illinois Prairie Girl Scout Council was held on Wednesday, Nov. 12, in White Hall, The First Methodist church provided a most pleasant meeting place and the council members gathered at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Bona Adkins presided in the absence of the neighborhood chairman. Several Scout songs were sung as an opener, and then the meeting was turned over to the council president, Mrs. John Newcomb. Minutes of the last council meeting in April were read and approved, and a treasurer's report was given. A list of new board chairmen and the committees of the board was read and the excellent board operation commented upon. Following the short business meeting, Miss Carol Van Tassel, a student at MacMurray College, was introduced and she gave an illustrated talk on her experiences at a World Camp in Canada in 1957. She was most enthusiastically received and was so inspiring that it was regretted so many of the council members were not present to enjoy her. Delicious refreshments of cookies, punch and coffee were served by the hostesses, the Girl Scout leaders of White Hall.

Leaders of the South Morgan Neighborhood will meet on Thursday, Nov. 20, at the home of the new chairman, Mrs. Lyle Davis, 1625 South Clay avenue, at 9:30 a.m. It is hoped that every leader, assistant and troop committee mother will make an effort to attend as this is the last meeting of the neighborhood until January.

The Girl Scout office will be closed on Monday, Nov. 17, from 2:00 to 4:00. Mrs. Thomas will be out of town, and the executive director will be in Roodhouse meeting with interested mothers who wish to start Scouting in that community.

Christmas crafts were displayed and worked on at the Scout office on Friday, Nov. 14, from 9:00 to 11:30 a.m. In spite of the warm weather, the workshop opened with the singing of "Jingle Bells," followed by an exhibit of suggestions on favors, gifts, centerpiece, ornaments, toys and Christmas cards. Then the group divided into five groups and made five different Christmas items to take back to their troops. Corsages were made of metal foil paper and sequins; Christmas cards using potato printing; favors using gummed crepe paper; a centerpiece using crepe paper; a coffee can lid, a dowel and paper plates; and an ornament using a Christmas ball and felt. If leaders wish to obtain gummed crepe paper, please call the office for directions on how to procure some of this craft material. A Christmas mobile caught the students' eyes.

as well as a Christmas door decoration. All suggestions and resource books, as well as displays will be left on exhibit until Christmas for the convenience of the leaders who were unable to attend the workshop. Those in attendance were as follows: Mrs. Frances Walker, Mrs. Eileen Derlinger, Mrs. Virginia Beams, Mrs. Jenny Dawson, Mrs. Margaret Quigg, Mrs. Gerry Womble, Mrs. Mary Curtis, Miss Norma Moore, Mrs. Thelma Kirk, Mrs. Jo Kant, Mrs. Eleanor Armstrong, Mrs. Ethel Watson, Mrs. June Bradish, Mrs. Cecilia Sorrell, Mrs. Marian Doyle, Jacksonville; Mrs. Wilma Ball, Mrs. Bernadine Rawlings, Mrs. Darleen Timmons, Waverly; and Mrs. Elsie Clark, White Hall.

The next two workshops offered will be in basketry and songs, and it is probable that both of these will occur in January, so we hope you will be looking forward to them.

Senior Scouts are pondering over their Roundup applications and preparing their essays on why they want to go to the Roundup. The deadline for their application return is Nov. 26, and it is hoped that we will have many responses to this marvelous opportunity.

Brownie Troop No. 48, with Mrs. Russell Lewis as the leader, visited the Ill-Mo Welding company and were fascinated by their experience. They were told of the many uses for oxygen, for medical and industrial purposes, and were allowed to breathe oxygen. They found it difficult to believe that oxygen comes to the Ill-Mo company in liquid form at 300 degrees below zero, and is then converted to gas in large tanks. They were given pamphlets by a member of the concern and have begun to make scrapbooks on interesting places they visit in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Charles Vieira, leader of Intermediate Troop No. 31, brought into the Girl Scout office a large exhibit of leaves and plants collected on a field trip and attractively mounted to display them to the best advantage. These examples of plant life are to be found at Lake Jacksonville. This exhibit will display at neighborhood meetings so that all leaders will have the opportunity to see it.

W.S.C.S. MEETS AT LYNNVILLE CHURCH
The W.S.C.S. of Lynnville Methodist Church met in the social room on Wednesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Frances Schofield, in charge. Devotions were given by Mrs. Dale Rudisill. In the absence of Mrs. Carl Summers, Mrs. Albert Potter gave the study book chapter using the given subject, "A Decade of Human Rights."

Mrs. Russell Lewis was a guest and spoke on Literature and Publications relating to the society. Mrs. J. W. Patterson was at the piano. Following the business session refreshments were served from a tea table beautiful with autumn colors and candles. Mrs. Wm. Schofield presided. Hostesses were Mrs. Albert Potter, Mrs. Ben Mather and Mrs. Joe Wilson.

Thanksgiving Rites Planned At Carrollton

CARROLLTON — The Rev. Glenn Manis, pastor of the Baptist church, will deliver the sermon at the annual union Thanksgiving service to be held Thanksgiving Day at 8 a.m. in the Presbyterian church. The choir of the host church will be in charge of the music for the service. Envelopes for the offering will be received which will be sent to CROP but the loose offering will be used by the Ministerial Alliance.

Final plans were made Tuesday at a meeting of the Carrollton Ministerial Alliance at the Baptist church which followed the service at the Tower View Nursing Home with the Rev. John Finnman of Eldred as the speaker. Plans were also made to honor the Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Setterlund with a farewell picnic supper at the Baptist church Dec. 12 with the members of the Ministerial Alliance and their families attending. The Rev. and Mrs. Setterlund will move from Carrollton in December to Warrensburg, Mo. to make their home the Rev. Setterlund having planned to retire from the ministry at the completion of his time of service in the local Presbyterian church. The Rev. Setterlund has been especially active in the Carrollton Ministerial Alliance and was one of the ministers responsible for its reorganization several years ago.

Hillview OES Chapter Elects New Officers

PATTERSON — At a meeting held Thursday evening at the Masonic Hall in Hillview by Hillview chapter, No. 981 OES, the annual election of officers was held with the following being named to offices for the coming year.

Worthy matron, Verjean Greening; worthy patron, Irl Bowman; associate matron, Martha Shafer; associate patron, Leslie Shafer; conductress, Shirley McCaherty; associate conductress, Leona Meyer; treasurer, Bess Bowman; and secretary, Mary Daniels.

These officers, together with the appointive officers, will be installed in December, the tentative date is Dec. 6. A school of instruction for the new officers will be held on Dec. 10 with Jill Weiland of the Grafton chapter as instructor.

Following the election of officers and the closing of the chapter the group enjoyed refreshments of hamburgers and pie, served by the men in the group. Joint installation of the Eastern Star officers and the Masonic officers is being planned.

Legion Auxiliary Contributes To 4 Organizations

WHITE HALL—American Legion Auxiliary to Post No. 70 met Thursday night at the Legion Home with president Meda Hayes presiding. A report was given by membership chairman Hazel Deavers that the unit now has 74 members. The quota is 71.

Cash donations were voted to the local Girl Scouts; the 9 point program of the Department of Illinois; the candy fund for veterans at the Jacksonville Veterans hospital, 734 N. number with 3 at Norbury's; and to the Department of Illinois Child Welfare program.

Commander Cloyd Hoeman attended the meeting and asked the Auxiliary to serve dinner and supper on Dec. 20, in conjunction with the Post's Christmas project, which the Auxiliary agreed to do and they will serve ham at both meals. President Hayes appointed Alma Dugger Poppy chairman.

Hillview and the local Auxiliary members will be co-hostesses at the home here on Nov. 20 with a potluck supper at which time district officers will be guests. Bingo will be played following the meeting.

The meeting on Dec. 11 will be a Christmas party with a potluck supper and gift exchange.

Alma Dugger installed Hazel Deavers as first vice president to take the place of the late Arla Moore. Memorial books donated by Lela Hubbard have been placed in the Whiteside library for Nettie Dickerson and Arla Moore.

The group played buncos with prizes going to Alma Dugger for high, buncos and door, low to Ina Rexroat and floating to Marguerite Orten, Mrs. Virgil Bowen and Mrs. Deavers served cake and coffee.

The Day Jacksonville Lost 9 Minutes And 33 Seconds

On a beautiful and mild Sunday afternoon, just 75 years ago, time stood still in Jacksonville for 9 minutes, 33 seconds. For years afterwards people called it "the day with the two noons."

It was on Nov. 18, 1883, when "Standard Time" was instituted in the United States.

It is not reflecting on the intelligence of our ancestors to say they didn't know the time of day. They had watches to keep the time, but they had no right time to keep. The so-called time was different in nearly every city, town and hamlet—sometimes even on the streets of the same town.

For example, the west side of Chicago was 67 seconds slower than the lake front.

The railroads used nearly 100 different times and the Chicago Tribune listed 27 "popular" local times in Illinois, the same in Michigan, 38 in Wisconsin and 23 in Indiana.

Often the jewelers set the time and if a town had two jewelers it was pretty sure to have two different times.

Travelers Handicapped

People said "The only way to determine the arrival and departure of trains is to go to the edge of a hill and look down on the station."

It was the railroads, and not the government, that straightened out the mess of establishing time zones near the principal meridians cutting through the United States. In fact, the government never got around to sanctioning the change until March 19, 1918, during the first World War.

Jacksonville, in those days mainly timed itself by the clocks at the Wabash and Alton railroads, which were in turn regulated by telegraph daily from Springfield. And the Springfield chronometers were regulated daily out of Chicago—on Chicago time.

The Jacksonville and South-eastern railroad, though, ran principally on Centralia time, which was a little faster than St. Louis time.

And travelers think they have troubles now!

Sunday, Nov. 18

Chicago time went out and standard time came to Jacksonville at noon. Sizeable crowds gathered at the jewelry stores and at the railway stations. At noon, the telegraph regulated the clock. Then nothing happened for 8 minutes, 33 seconds. Again the operator began buzzing away the seconds for a full minute, with a hard press on the key for a long buzz at the new noon.

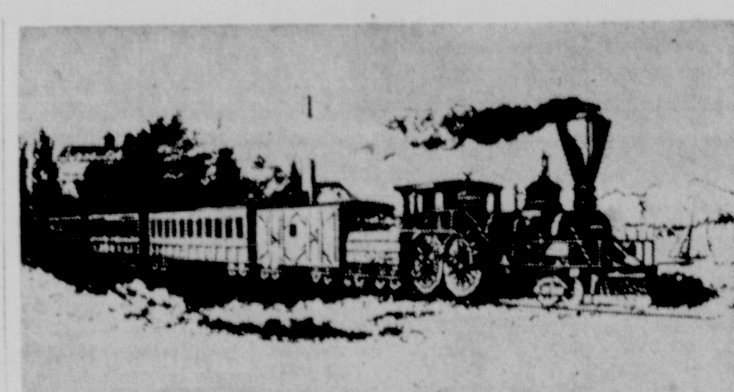

An old coddler who used to loaf in Scheid's saloon in Lincoln often said:

"The wait was enough to give you the creeps. Everybody looked at each other, with a silly grin. It was sorta like looking at a full eclipse of the sun. Everybody got goose-pimples."

"Contrary To Nature"

The people generally welcomed the change but, as you guessed, some folks didn't like anybody monkeying with "God's time."

Some of them said the whole scheme was contrary to nature. The Jacksonville Journal, edited by C. M. Eames, was very enthusiastic about the change.

The railroads brought standard time to the nation. These drawings fairly well depict equipment used in 1883.

The editor of the Indianapolis Sentinel felt differently.

He wrote, "Railroad time is the time of the future. The sun is no longer boss on the job. The sun will be requested to rise and set by railroad time. The planets must, in the future, make their circuits by such timetables as railroad magnates arrange."

"People will be forced to marry by railroad time and die by railroad time. We presume the sun, moon and stars will make an attempt to ignore the orders of the Railroad convention, but will have to give in at last."

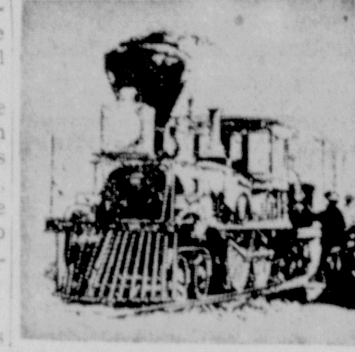

Editor Eames noted that the new time was based on the 90th principal meridian, which runs between Springfield and Decatur, and hence the new standard time was much closer to true time so far as Jacksonville was concerned.

"A Large Variety" He remarked on Tuesday, "It is quite a relief to get so close to sun time again."

But he went on to painfully record, "There was a large variety of times yesterday in consequence to the change. It will take several days for all to get in running order."

The people survived, even if they had helplessly lost so much time. And the trains, those that are still running, run on standard time.

Will It Happen Again?

WILL IT HAPPEN AGAIN?—There are rumblings of a new Communist Berlin blockade. The first one, in 1948-49, was made ineffectual by the famed "airlift." This major air effort by the Allies is typified by the photo, above, which shows a long line of unloaded truck trailers at a Frankfurt airport after the goods had been put into waiting transport planes bound for Berlin. The planes flew around the clock to bring to the western sector of the city the essentials—food, things and people. Now, less than 10 years later, the scenes could be repeated.

THE NEW EXPLORER PROGRAM of the Boy Scouts of America to be launched in this district next month, will find these men playing a key part. Honest Abe District Scouts pictured above will conduct the first training course Monday, November 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the American Legion home in Jacksonville. The men shown at the Council training session in Springfield last week are: left to right, Martin Hutchens, Les Abbott, both of Jacksonville; Greg Sinnock, Beardstown; Charles Alderman, Jacksonville; John R. Morse, Virginia; Eddie Evans, Winchester; and John Corrigan and Earl Jones of Jacksonville.

The Explorer program for high school boys is the result of five years of preparation following a nation-wide survey of boys by the University of Michigan done at the request of the Boy Scouts of America. Monday night's training session is for Explorer Advisors, Post Committeemen and any others interested in sponsoring or leading the Explorer program.

Virginia WSCS Hears Program On Human Rights

VIRGINIA — The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Virginia Methodist church met in the church parlors with Mrs. J. E. Fox hostess. The president, Mrs. Jesse Whitte, opened the meeting.

The group joined in a salute to the Christian and American flags, led by Mrs. Elmer Webster. Mrs. Frank Bruno, program chairman, made introductory remarks on the author of the program in the study group.

Miss Elsie Harper, a worker in International Affairs Department of the National Council of Churches.

After devotions conducted by Mrs. Gene Crouse, the group sang a hymn, "Rise Up Ye Men Of Faith," with Mrs. B. W. Peebles accompanying at the piano.

The lesson on "The Decade of Human Rights" was presented in a very interesting manner by Mrs. Bennie Burnett, spiritual life secretary. Mrs. Howard Tink had planned an effective worship center. Mrs. Elmer Webster, secretary of children's work, told of eight study services on the topic "Mexico."

Mrs. Charles A. Bennett served refreshments to the group. The average attendance of the group was 16 children.

A gift of $10 was sent by the Children's Society to the Wolfe Settlement at Miami, interesting reports of the district meeting at Rushville in October were given by Mrs. George Huffman, Mrs. Charles A. Bennett and Mrs. Seth McClintock.

The first study class on "Concerns of A Continent" and "Shadows They Cast," had 11 members enrolled. Mrs. Roy Jokisch told of the appointment of Marian Anderson as a U. N. goodwill ambassador. Miss Nell Springer, recording secretary, read minutes of the October meeting, followed by November executive board meeting. It was decided to hold an auction of all articles left from the bazaar at the December meeting.

It was decided to send $5 to the Christmas fund at Langleyville. The pledge of $1,000 on the new carpet will be paid at once. Miss Lillie Gustafson, treasurer, reported the election day dinner and bazaar netted a substantial sum. This financial success was due to the cooperation of all members and appreciation was expressed by Mrs. Whitte for loyalty and interest shown.

The hostess served cookies, mints and coffee. The table at which Mrs. Henry Jacobs presided, was arranged attractively with a lace cloth, centered by lovely white and purple mums and tall white tapers.

PRIESTS' SCHOLARSHIPS

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — a commission of the Lutheran World Federation has granted scholarships to three former Roman Catholic priests in Italy to take theological training for entering the Lutheran ministry in that country.

MARRIAGE MANUAL

CHICAGO (AP) — The Methodist church has issued an official marriage manual for engaged couples, entitled "In Holy Matrimony," designed to give guidance on various problems faced by newly-weds. The church also has put out a new manual for use by pastors in giving premarital counseling.

Human Rights Roodhouse Class Program Theme

ROODHOUSE—The W.S.C.S. of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Harvey Hodge Thursday night at 7:30. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Merle Harp and devotionals and the lesson were given by Mrs. Herman Spencer who was assisted by Mrs. Harp. A panel discussion on "Human Rights" was led by Mrs. Spencer who was joined by the following on the panel: Mesdames Bob Colwell, John W. Roberts, Margaret Sullivan and Fred Hoes.

During the business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Everett Spencer, it was voted to donate half of the expense of the Santa Claus suit for the Sunday school.

Twenty-six adults were present for the meeting and refreshments were served by Mrs. Hodge, Mrs. Harp, Mrs. Herman Spencer, Mrs. Colwell, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Lee Keller, and Mrs. John McConathy.

Baptist Church Joins S.E. Program At Greenfield

GREENFIELD—The First Baptist Church of Greenfield is participating in the southwestern area Simultaneous Evangelism program, along with churches in the Alton area of the American Baptist Convention Sunday, Nov. 16 - Sunday, Nov. 23.

The Rev. William Weber, pastor of the Greenfield church, has secured the services of the Rev. Joe Caldwell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Percy, Ill., to lead the Greenfield church in this evangelistic program.

The Rev. Caldwell is a native of Illinois, from the Cairo area, and has carried on a most active evangelistic program in his church in a community comparable in size to Greenfield.

Meetings will be held at 3:45 p.m. for the children of the community. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday the grade school children are invited to come to the church annex, and on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons the Junior and Senior high school students are invited.

Barnwarming Festival Held By Meredosia FFA

MEREDOSIA—Friday night the Meredosia-Chambersburg chapter of the Future Farmers of America held its second annual Barnwarming in the vocational agriculture shop in the high school.

Entrance to the activities was made by crawling under an archway of bales. The program for the evening was square dancing and the crowning of the chapter Sweetheart. Music for the dancing was played by the Allen band.

This year's Sweetheart, Miss Anne Perry, was crowned by last year's Sweetheart, Miss Judy Martin. Miss Perry's attendants were Linda McCormick, Kaye Stinebaker, Judy and Roxie Irving.

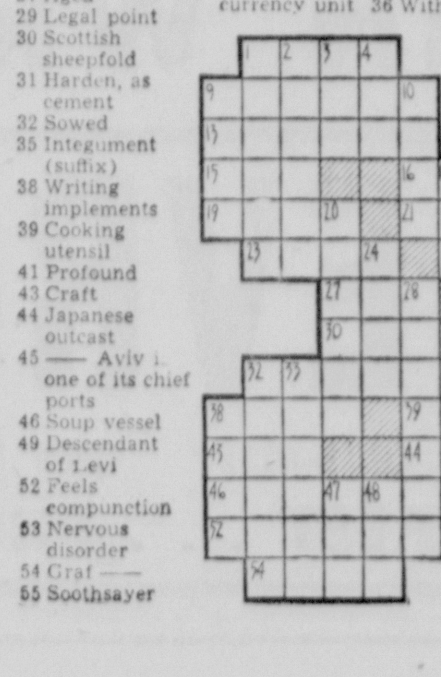

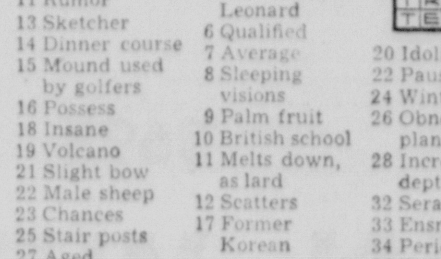

The chapter gave a jacket to Miss Perry. Everyone enjoyed the evening of fun and food.
